

EPISCOPAL HOME TOUR--REYNOLDS, PHILLIPS, FORD-DAVIS, WEBER

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reynolds, Mrs. E. L. Phillips, Miss Mae Ford and Mrs. Wilhemine Davis, and Mrs. Jacob Weber will open their homes Friday afternoon to the Episcopal Home Tour group. These homes are located on Bearpen Mountain, Sequoyah Lake, Holt Knob area, and Blue Valley Overlook respectively. Tea will be served at the Weber home.

Those going on the Tour must make advance reservations, obtainable by telephoning 526-2444 on Friday morning (before noon). The Tour group will leave the Church of the Incarnation at 2:30 on Friday afternoon. Transportation will be provided.

The Home Tours are a project of the Episcopal Churchwomen and Highlands' most interesting private homes are made available through the kindness of the owners.

HIGHLANDS SCHOOL WILL OPEN SEPTEMBER 5TH

Principal W. C. Newton announced Tuesday that Highlands School will officially open September 5th. Teachers will report to work on Wednesday, August 30th.

Due to the resignations of Mrs. David Bailey, who has accepted a teaching position in Clayton, Ga., and Mr. Lester Young, who taught 8th grade last year, two vacancies are open for an elementary teacher and a Home Economics teacher.

Under the E. S. E. A., it is assumed that the school will be operated in much the same way as last year, with the same number of personnel employed under the federal assistance program.

HCT'S FINAL PRODUCTION "THE FANTASTICKS"

The next and final production at Highlands Community Theatre for this season will be "The Fantasticks", playing August 23-27.

At the present date, the cast has not been chosen. Male and female vocalists are still needed for this lively musical.

Reservations may be made by telephone at 526-2695 or at the boxoffice of the theatre. It is anticipated this musical will play to a standing-room-only theatre.

DR. OLIVE LECTURES AT MUSEUM TODAY

Dr. Lindsay Olive, of Columbia University, will deliver a lecture at the Museum of Natural History this afternoon (August 10th) at three o'clock. Dr. Olive's lecture topic is "Fungi A-round Highlands."

Other events at the Museum will be a "show me" trip on August 15th and an early morning nature walk on August 16th.
