SOMETHING TO SAY

-- BY JESSIE L. HARBISON

All too often we find the excuse "I just didn't know what to say" to be the easy way out. And since maybe we really didn't know what to say, we didn't try; and we found a crutch for the next time.

But what about the person to whom we should have said something? Does he know why his need was left unattended? Or must he add hurt to injury and devise his own excuse for not having been helped?

We do not need a tragedy to find ourselves not knowing what to say. Opportunities arise daily, and perhaps if we had said something, someone's day would have been a little more worthwhile.

Why then don't we take--or even make --the time to make it worthwhile? Perhaps because our selfless intention is turned into a selfish pursuance. We really were concerned--really meant to be kind--but something came (CON'D, PAGE 17)

"FANTASTICKS" OPENS AT H C T ON AUGUST 24TH FOR FINAL PRO- DUCTION

On Thursday, August 24th, there will be sparkle and music and light and fun at the Highlands Community Theatre as HCT presents the FANTASTICKS. Your writer is such a fanatic about FANTASTICKS that she finds it difficult to limit her adjectives in describing this delight of musical theatre. She has personally seen seven productions of the FANTASTICKS, one of the original cast one short week after the off-Broadway opening--now eight years ago. It is obvious enthusiasm is no problem. OVER 500 PEOPLE ATTEND SQUARE DANCE FESTIVAL

The 6th Annual Square Dance Festival, which drew a crowd of approximately 500 people from Highlands and surrounding areas, may be counted as a huge success. The yearly Chamber of Commerce sponsored event was held in the Highlands School Auditorium, and offered an evening of enjoyment for all.

Two divisions were (CON'D ON PAGE 12)
