HUDSON LIBRARY SILVER TEA

The annual Hudson Library Silver Tea will be at the R. D. Wood home on August 25th. This lovely home on Wolf Ridge was completed half a century ago by the Ravenel family, and was for a long time the summer residence of the Misses Margerite and Clare Ravenel.

A special attraction at the Tea, being held from three until five o'clock, will be the drawing of the five winning tickets for the Gem Raffle.

Transportation will be provided for those attending the Silver Tea from the Library on Main Street (Continued page 20)

FINAL PRODUCTION AT HCT, "THE FANTASTICKS", OPENS TONIGHT

It's almost September and the lyrics of the first song in THE FANTASTICKS will stir everyone to remember the kind of September when he was young and life was mellow. These words fairly well paint the scene for this charming musical which opens tonight at Highlands Community Theatre. It is a fantasy, a love story, uncomplicated and laced with some of the most delightful music to come out of American musical theatre in a generation. Here in Highlands the "Soon It's Going To Rain", lyrics will also strike a respondent chord, and the magic and beauty of the entire performance will captivate the audiences from curtain at 8:30 until the final blackout.

It is not a simple task in modern theatre to find a story designed to be produced by young people and enjoyed by a mature audience. This is evident in THE FANTASTICKS. The two girls, Anne Dodson and Betsy Round, share the only feminine role in the show - Luisa - THE GIRL. Robin Eaton plays against both of them as - The Boy - Matt. The hours of preparation have been long and demanding (CONTINUED ON PAGE 11)
