

EPISCOPAL EVENTS

SUNDAY SERVICES

Sunday services at the Church of the Incarnation are at 8 and 11 a.m. Sunday school meets at 9:30, beginning with a plain celebration of the Holy Eucharist--a service available to all who find this a convenient hour to attend church.

WEEKDAY SERVICES

Weekday services henceforth will, normally, be on Thursday mornings, when Morning Prayer is read at 9:45 and the Holy Eucharist offered at 10. This Thursday and next, however, the rector will be away from town, attending diocesan meetings, and so the services will have to be omitted.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

The Fall Ingathering of the United Thank Offering of the women of the church will be received at both services this Sunday, September 3rd. You will receive Blue Envelopes for this offering through the mail. They may be placed on the alms bason at Sunday service, or mailed to Miss Caroline Hall at the First Union National Bank in Highlands.

HIGHLANDS-CASHIERS HOSPITAL NEWS

Mr. A. S. Happoldt, Chairman of the Highlands-Cashiers Hospital board of trustees, announced this week that the Hospital Fund Drive has now passed the $40,000 mark.

Mr. Don Yates, hospital administrator, expressed the gratitude of the hospital to the Gray Ladies for all of their time and effort they have contributed to the hospital. Mr. Yates commended them on a wonderful job done and expressed hopes that the program will continue throughout the year.

TWO MACON MEN GIVEN APPOINTMENTS BY GOVERNOR

Three appointments this past week from the office of Gov. Dan K. Moore will be of particular interest to people in Macon County.

Two appointees E. J. Whitmire, of Franklin, and Edward Potts, of Highlands, are Macon County men. The third, Tom L. Mallonse, is well known throughout the area as secretary of Congressman Roy A. Taylor. In this capacity, Mr. Mallonse visits here at least once a month and is well known throughout the area.

Mr. Whitmire was reappointed by Gov. Moore to the Board of Trustees of Western Carolina University for a term expiring June 30, 1975. He was first appointed to the Board by Gov. Kerr Scott and has served under four governors.

Mr. Potts was appointed to be a member of the North Carolina National Park, Parkway, and Forest Development Commission. He was named to fill the
