METHODIST NEWS

The Methodist Church in Highlands has been assigned a new pastor. He is the Rev. Julian Aldridge. If Rev. Aldridge is not in Highlands for this Sunday, the service will be conducted by Rev. Sitzer, from Brevard College. Rev. Aldridge is expected to move into the parsonage next week.

Mrs. Richard Harrison, Miss Lalla Davis, Mrs. Avery, Mrs. Metcalf, and others attended an all-day meeting of the WSCS at Lake Junaluska on Wednesday, June 12th.

The Methodist and Episcopal Churches will hold a combination Bible School beginning June 17th and running through June 21st. Classes will begin at 9:30 each morning and dismiss at 11:30 a.m. Classes for the younger children will be held at the Episcopal church while the older group meets at the Methodist Church.

NEW OWNERS AT PHARMACY

The Blue Ridge Pharmacy, Highlands' newest drugstore, has changed owners. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wall, recent owners, had to return to Franklin when the owner of Carolina Pharmacy became ill.

The new owners of the Blue Ridge Pharmacy are Mr. and Mrs. Allen Still, a young couple from Georgia. Mr. Allen Still was born and reared in Atlanta Georgia. Mrs. Still, Marilyn, was born in Valdosta, Georgia and reared in Dothan.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Still attended Sanford University in Birmingham. Mr. Still spent four years working toward a degree in biology. He then changed his mind about his field of work and spent three years studying to become a pharmacist. This is the first drugstore the Stills have owned. Mr. Still has had experience working in a hospital and in several retail stores.
