CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PLANS HILLBILLY DAY

A committee of the Chamber of Commerce headed by Fred Stewart, Jr. is presently in the process of planning a Hillbilly Day in Highlands. As the plans are now shaping up the Hillbilly Day will be a one-day affair which will be held July 25th, provided this does not conflict with any other activities.

HCT BEGINS NEW SEASON

Once again we are in the summer season of visitors, part time residents and the sparkle of holiday fun!

One of the most outstanding and cherished traditions of our summer entertainment has been the presentations of our own Highlands Community Theatre. This tradition of fine, professional quality theatre is thirty years young and several generations of "stage-buffs" have helped to develop and support this outstanding work almost uninterrupted through the years.
