The approval of the post-reading of the Town budget was also a part of Monday evening's meeting. The estimated budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1968 and running through June 30, 1969 was $241,499.00.

Mrs. Anne Tully of Athens, Georgia; Mrs. Linda McCaslin of Charlotte, N.C.; Mrs. Frieda Mungeo of San Joes, Mexico; and Doctor Eula Pate of Highlands. Two sons: Mr. Tex R. Pate of Gainesville, Georgia; and Mr. Jerry Pate of Atlanta, Georgia.

The funeral was held in the Methodist Church in Fort Gaines, Georgia, at 3:30 Monday afternoon.

Dr. Pate and Tommy Norton, who attended the funeral with Dr. Pate, returned to Highlands Tuesday morning.

Mr. Robert Dupree and family wish to express their appreciation to the personnel of the Highlands-Cashiers Hospital, to the members of the Highlands Presbyterian Church, and to the many friends who offered sympathy at the time of the passing of Mrs. R.B. Dupree, Sr.

HOWELL PATE SUCCUMBS

Dr. Eula Pate of Highlands was called to Fort Gaines, Georgia, Saturday night when her father, Mr. Howell Pate, passed away after suffering an unexpected heart attack.

Mr. Pate was seventy-eight years old. He is survived by Mrs. Howell Pate, one sister and one brother, five daughters:

ROTARY NEWS

At the regular weekly meeting of Highlands Rotary Club Tuesday, another good attendance was recorded. There were ten visiting Rotarians present and not only was North Carolina and Florida well represented but to the west of us Alabama and Mississippi and to the north both Pennsylvania and Vermont had representatives. It was reported that both local members still confined because of illness, namely Rotarians Les Misener and Robert Opsahl are both recovering nicely.

During the program period President Bill McCall called Dick Harrison and Fred Stewart to report on various facets of the Rotary District 767 Assembly held (CONTINUED ON PAGE FOURTEEN)
