METHODIST MINISTER ARRIVES

Rev. Julian Aldridge and family are now in Highlands and Rev. Aldridge has begun his duties as pastor of the Highlands Methodist Church.

Rev. Aldridge, who is a native of North Carolina, began his schooling at Davidson College where he did undergraduate work before giving service to our government as a lieutenant in the army. After the army, Rev. Aldridge attended seminary at Duke University where he received his B.D. degree. He then did postgraduate work at the University of Edinburgh, Edinburgh, Scotland. From Scotland Rev. Aldridge came back to North Carolina to a pastorate at Whittier. After this pastorate he returned to Duke to complete his schooling.

Mrs. Aldridge, a native of West Virginia received both a B.A. and Master's degree in English at Duke University.

The Aldridge's have one child, a daughter Rebecca, who is 1½ years old.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY NEWS

There will be a training session for the women who are interested in being "Pink Ladies" at the Highlands-Cashiers Hospital.

Mrs. L.C. Van Nest will be the supervisor and the first meeting will be held Wednesday, July 3, at 10:00 a.m. in the hospital recreation room.

FIRST PLAY AT HCT

"Barefoot in the Park," which was described by Life Magazine as "One of the funniest comedies ever" when it first set New York theatregoers roaring with laughter in the fall of 1963, will be presented by the Highlands Community Theatre July 11th through a Sunday matinee, July 14th.

Written by Neil Simon, the most acclaimed author of lighthearted plays of the 1960's, "Barefoot in the Park" has the credentials of having been one of the biggest smash hits in American stage history, running on Broadway for over three
