HILLBILLY DAY PROMISES A SCORE OF AMUSING EVENTS

For the first time since August 7, 1957, Highlands is planning a Hillbilly Day. The Chamber of Commerce is once again sponsoring the fun-filled day to provide a day of family fun for both summer and local residents -- in the "good ole mountain style".

To start the day off, the Chamber has planned a mountain parade for anyone who wishes to join in. The parade will be composed of floats and everyone is encouraged to put his thinking cap on and think up one. There will be a contest for the best float and who knows-- you might just win. The parade is scheduled to begin at 11 a.m. so bring your mules, dogs, wash tubs, and rub boards and join in the fun.

DEATH TAKES JACK H. WILCOX

Mr. Jack H. Wilcox, prominent Highlands resident, died unexpectedly Sunday morning, July 14, at his home on Billy Cabin Mountain at the age of 70.

Mr. Wilcox was born in Halifax, Nova Scotia, on January 9, 1898. He served in the U. S. Army in World War I on the Western Front with the famous 69th regiment of the Rainbow Division. He later received degrees from the University of Wisconsin and Vanderbilt University, and taught in Adult Education in Wisconsin.

In 1932 he was married to Virginia Randall. He and Mrs. Wilcox moved to Highlands in 1936 to develop their Billy Cabin Farm.

Mr. Wilcox served as Town Clerk of Highlands from 1943 - 1946. During that time he helped in reducing the indebtedness of the town.

During 1946-1947 he taught at Missouri Valley College in Marshall, Missouri, where he was Dean of Men and Chairman of the Department of Economics. He taught economics at the University of Tennessee in the school of Business Administration from 1948 until his retirement in 1960.

He was one of the original founders of the Highlands Community Theatre in 1939 (CONTINUED ON PAGE TWELVE)
