HILLBILLY SPIRIT SPREADS TO THEATRE HILL

Highlands Community Theatre is co-operating 100% with the rejuvenated Hillbilly Day. Since the opening night presentation of "Wait Until Dark" falls on Thursday, July 25th, the group on the hill says, "Come as you are", and all of our ushers will be in Hillbilly costume.

Performances will also be on Friday, July 26 and Saturday the 27th at 8:30 p.m. The special Sunday matinee will be at 2:30 p.m.

Richard Cooke, the New York critic, said of this play in the Wall Street Journal, "The war between men and woman took a new turn with the presentation of "Wait Until Dark". (CONTINUED ON PAGE THIRTEEN)

SERVICES HELD FOR LUTHER RICE, JR.

Luther Warren Rice Jr., 53, of Highlands, died Wednesday night, July 17, in an Asheville hospital after a long illness.

Mr. Rice was born June 26, 1915. He attended the University of Miami and Georgia Technical Institute. A lifelong resident of Macon County and a restaurant owner, he was a veteran of World War II and a member of the Highlands Lions Club.

Surviving are the father, Luther W. Rice, Sr., of Highlands; a brother, Herbert Rice of Stuart, Fla; three sisters, Mrs. Rucker Ragland of Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Elizabeth Harbison and Mrs. James Lowe, both of Highlands. (CON'D ON P. 18)

ANNUAL HOSPITAL BAZAAR THIS WEEKEND

Throughout this past year our Highlands women have been working toward one goal - to have a successful bazaar. A visit to the bazaar will be a pleasant experience, for nowhere can there be found such a variety of wonderful and useful items.

The bazaar will be held in the Presbyterian Educational Building from 9 to 5 on Friday and 9 to 12 on Saturday. We urge everyone to help make it a success.
