PROFOUND EXPRESSION

-- BY ROBERT DUPREE

Being only a lad then, how could I know? My canary had died, and there hung the cage, of no use except to remind me of that one sad fact. I loved that bird. The rambling porch, extending the entire length of the house, was an ideal place for the cage to hang - free from the rain, but with just enough sunshine to make an inviting atmosphere. But - the cage was empty.

Away I ran to check on my rabbit gum. Every boy had a rabbit gum. Caught some too. Finding the trigger tripped and hastening to view my catch, I turned the trap on end to keep my prize from escaping when I opened the door. There it was - no rabbit - but a young mockingbird that had evidently taken shelter from an afternoon shower. Yes, I had a cage. (CONTINUED ON PAGE FOURTEEN)

NANTAHALA FINE ARTS SHOW THIS WEEKEND

Fine Art for sale, benefits for the Hudson Library, beautiful art to enjoy plus a guessing game on most unusual items...what more can you ask? Plan to attend the Nantahala Fine Arts Show in the Anderson Building (across from Town Hall) August 2, 3, and 4. Hours on August 2 and 3 are from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., on August 4th from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Admission is 50¢, and children under 12 are admitted free. Those who wish to guess on the items may not wish to enjoy the fine arts and so may buy a 25¢ guessing sheet. The person getting the most items right (first) will be given a $5.00 prize. The winner will be announced next week.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY MEETING TODAY

The regular meeting of the Highlands-Cashiers Hospital Auxiliary will be today, August 1st, at 1:30 a.m. in the Recreation Room of the hospital. All members are asked to attend.
