"THE ODD COUPLE" PLAYING AT HCT THIS WEEK

The Highlands Community Theatre is halfway through its 1968 season, but it is especially proud of its third play. "The Odd Couple" was a smash hit in New York with Art Carney and Walter Matthaus as the leads, but wait until you see what the Reverend Bob DuPree and G. Sam Sanfilippo do with those same parts, and you will be glad you are a part of the Highlands Summer Group.

There is a poker game to end all poker games while awaiting the arrival of the "to be divorced" Felix, and you will be amused and delighted by the very clever dialogue delivered by Mr. Russell Eaton, his son Mike, Ken Davis of the Delray Players, and George Schmitt, local builder and contractor.

MRS. WRIGHT DIES UNEXPECTEDLY

Mrs. Ersie Mabel Vereen Wright, 50, a summer resident of Highlands, died unexpectedly at the Highlands-Cashiers Hospital Sunday afternoon.

She was also a resident of Greenwood, S. C., where she lived for the past 26 years and was a member of the Main Street Methodist Church there. Mrs. Wright spent many summers here and was active in church and civic clubs.

Surviving are the husband, Chester N. Wright; two daughters, Mrs. Linda Ersie Nichols and Mrs. Barbara Eley of Knoxville, Tenn.; her father, Hartford J. Vereen, a sister, Mrs. M. A. Thompson, and a brother, Col. L. H. Vereen, all of North Myrtle Beach, S. C.

A short service was held at Blyth Funeral Home, Greenwood, at 10 a.m. Tuesday. Another service was held at the Highlands Methodist Church at 4 p.m. Tuesday. Burial was in the Highlands Memorial Cemetery.
