Winner of the "Guess What" Contest was Mark McDowell of Highlands. It isn't easy to figure out what 30 unusual articles are and especially if you are a young lad and never saw them before. But, that's what Mark accomplished. At least he got more right answers in the "Guess What It Is" contest held in conjunction with the Nantahala Fine Arts Show. Thanks go to everyone who made the show one of the best held. The Hudson Library Benefit will provide many new books.
