AUCTION TO BENEFIT HOSPITAL

Mr. V. W. McCall, Chairman of the Hospital Fund Drive, has announced that on Sunday, August 25th, at 2:30 p.m., a special auction to benefit the Highlands-Cashiers Hospital Fund Drive will be held at the Highlands Art Gallery on Main Street.

Mr. Arthur Trock and Mr. Morris Stone, owners of the Gallery, and the staff of the Gallery, will conduct the special auction of all manner of items donated by local business owners. Over 35 shops and businesses in the Highlands-Cashiers area are donating the widest variety of auction-able articles, ranging from hams to clothing to jewels to hardware.

Individual donations of items will be welcomed, Mr. McCall said. Anyone wishing to contribute should contact Mrs. Peter Many at 526-2379. All proceeds will go to the Fund Drive.

COLLIN WILCOX ACTRESS WITH UNUSUAL NAME

Collin Wilcox, called by Mike Nichols "the best actress in Hollywood", spends a portion of each day explaining her first name.

The beautiful and shapely redhead who stars with Jack Lord, Susan Strasberg, and Tisha Sterling in Poore and Todd Productions' "The Name of the Game is Kill", (recommended for mature audiences) playing Thursday, August 22nd, at the Galax Theatre, tells it this way:

"My parents had no sons and my father especially wanted a boy, so when I arrived he named me Collin which was the name of his favorite uncle. It bothered me a bit when I was small but nowadays it doesn't. And it's a fine conversation piece". (CON'D ON PAGE 13)

BARBECUE SATURDAY

Don't forget the Firemen's Barbecue Saturday, August 17, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the new fire station. There will be delicious barbecue, free rides on the firetruck for the kiddies, and three drawings for $100 savings bonds. Chances are $1.00.
