

THE TIME ELEMENT

God does not have a Hit Parade of the "top ten" sins among the youth of our day. There is one thing God is concerned about because it is something that practically every youth of our day is guilty of and indulging in. The sin I am thinking of is tragic in nature, because very few young people believe there is anything wrong with it.

The number one sin among the youth of our day is wasting time. God describes the wasting of time as a dangerous, mind-destroying, soul-damaging, malignant pull of Satan. The Bible does speak of other sins directly related to the wasting of time. Here they are: disobedience, stubbornness, gossip, laziness, evil imaginations, foolishness, stealing, love of pleasures, selfishness and pride.

I don't believe it when I hear people saying that Christian young people are "squares," that they are dull, that they are phonies or long-hairs or cry-babies. That is an excuse the devil uses. When our Christian youth stands up for Jesus, the devil spreads the propaganda that somehow they are inferior. Don't you believe a word of it. There is nothing as brave, as wonderful, as true, as a young person who is unafraid to take his stand for Jesus anywhere, at any time.

The beatnik philosophy is, "What the
