PARRISH-CALLOWAY VOWS SPOKEN

Miss Margaret Parrish became the bride of Mr. Doyle Calloway on Friday, May 23, in Trinity Presbyterian Church in Laurinburg, N. C. Rev. Charles E. Parrish, the bride's father, officiated at the 7:30 p.m. ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Grant Sharpe, minister of the church.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Leon Calloway of Highlands.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her uncle, William K. Parrish, of Raleigh. She wore a formal gown of white peau de soie fashioned with an empire waistline bodice and A-line skirt. The bodice was made of lace and featured a scalloped neckline. Her cathedral train fell from a satin and seed pearl headdress. She carried a nosegay of white roses.

Miss Mary Beth Parrish, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a springtime green formal gown, with an empire waistline and an A-line skirt. Her bouquet was a nosegay of yellow daisy mums. Bridesmaids were Miss Gail Calloway of Highlands, sister of the groom, and Miss Sara Betts Hunter of Aiken, S. C. They wore dresses like that of the honor attendant and carried bouquets identical to hers.

The bridegroom had his brother-in-law, Robert James, of Scaly Mountain, N. C., as best man. Ushers were Stuart Parrish, brother of the bride; James L. Calloway, (CONTINUED ON P. 12)
