We are proud - and justifiably so we think - of the very fine and extensive collection of merchandise we have to offer during this our fourth season. We have the largest and finest collection of Cut Glass to be found in the area. We have both old and new in beautiful lamps including an old double brass Student Lamp. Items of brass, copper, pewter and silver, fine vases, dresden figurines, handpainted and old Haviland china, prints, oils, four old Audobon prints framed alike, a fine French Fireside bench upholstered in needlepoint, mahogany and cherry chests, tables, china cabinets, chairs, mirrors, a beautiful old Love Seat plus hundreds of items too numerous to mention. New merchandise arrives almost daily so why not come see us TODAY and often bringing a guest, neighbor, or friend with you. You & They will be glad you did!

Episcopal Events

Sunday services at the Church of the Incarnation are at 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m. Sunday School meets at 9:30, with the children attending the first part of that service, and leaving for their classes after the Creed.

On weekdays the Eucharist is offered at 8 a.m. on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays, and at 10 a.m. on Thursdays. Matins is read 15 minutes before the hour in all cases, and the Thursday service is followed by an adult class.

Junior Choir meets for rehearsal on Friday morning at 10 in the Rondette. Our summer visitors are most cordially invited to join in.

LEE'S INN PURCHASED

Announcement has been made of the purchase of Lee's Inn by Mr. Dick Lee from his other partners, Mrs. Jean Lee and Mr. P. E. Round of Orlando. The policy of the inn will remain the same.

TUITION INCREASE PLANNED ON MANY CAMPUSES

Parents once again are going to feel a greater strain on their pocket-books when students return to N. C.'s colleges and universities this September.

Increases are planned in tuition and fee charges on many campuses while dormitory rent and other costs are also going up at some.

The executive committee of the board of trustees of the Consolidated University of North Carolina approved a $150 tuition increase for out-of-state students at all of its branches last week.

The increase will boost the out-of-state tuition at N. C. State, for example, to $552, and at UNC-G to $850.

Other charges also will go up, many of them affecting North Carolina residents.

At N. C. State, the tuition for North Carolina residents will be increased to $184.50 from last year's $179. The student (CONTINUED ON PAGE 21)
