Main St. Highlands

The above described "new bell" is being installed in the Presbyterian Church of Highlands in the near future on a trial basis. The chimes are being given in memory of Mrs. Edwina D. Summer, the church's organist for so many years. Contributions may be made to Alan Lewis, Treasurer.

Also a part of this installation is a tower chimes instrument known as the "ChimeAtron." This instrument is an exclusive development of Schulmerich Carollons, Inc., of Sellersville, Pennsylvania. The "ChimeAtron" consists of twenty-five miniature chime units of bronze metal which are struck by metal hammers, producing exact true chime tones almost inaudible to the human ear. These chime vibrations are then amplified over 100,000 times by means of specially designed electronic equipment, producing true chime tones which are far superior to the tones of traditional chimes of much larger proportion.

The tower "ChimeAtron" is played from a special keyboard located at the organ console. Selector switches permit them to be heard within the church alone from the tower alone or both together.

"WITH SIX YOU GET EGGROLL"

Cinema Center Films' "With Six You Get Eggroll" introduces a brand-new screen image for Doris Day.

No longer the sweet "girl-next-door" who always manages to come through the most difficult situations with her virtue intact, Miss Day plays a sophisticated widow with a mind of her own -- and 3 sons. She and a handsome widower, played by Brian Keith, engage in a period of hot and cold courtship, then marry -- only to find out that there are other emotions besides their own which must be taken into consideration. Keith, one of Hollywood's most versatile actors, turns from his brilliant, highly-acclaimed dramatic performance in "Reflections In a Golden Eye" to a light comedy role.

In addition to Miss Day's three sons played by Day look-alike John Findlater, Timmy Bracken and Richard Steelee-- there are Keith's teen-aged daughter, played by Barbara Hershey - and two lively dogs.

Three long-time comedy favorites join the fun: Pat Carroll as Miss Day's match-making sister; George Carlin as owner-attendant of the drive-in where the lovers meet to escape the reprimands of their children; and Alice Ghostley as Miss Day's scatter-brained housekeeper. Until the warring offspring become a family unit, the situation is not unlike living in an armed camp, and the newly-weds must move into a trailer for a bit of privacy.

The film plays Sunday and Monday, August 10 and 11 at the GALAX THEATRE.
