

This is the time of the year for lilies. Numerous varieties can be found in our prolific mountain area. Turk's-Caps (Lilium superbum linnaeus) not to be confused with Michaux's Carolina tiger lily are in bloom along the roadside between Highlands and Cashiers. Lilies are springing up everywhere - even at the Country Emporium. Not to be confused with the original shifts of this name, these are cool, comfortable and 1/2 the price. Please refrain from picking the Lilium superbum linnaeus. But do pick out several cool, colorful, cotton shifts (superbum immitation Lilliums) at the

COUNTRY —
— EMPORIUM
Cashiers

ON RIGHT OF U.S. 64 JUST BEFORE THE INTERSECTION

WIT'S END SHOPS

Since 1941

Invite you to come in and browse at your leisure. If we don't have it, we will get it for you or tell you where you may find it.

Distinguished merchandise for the discriminating.

DON'T MISS OUR 1/2 PRICE CORNER