DR. OGLESBY RESIGNS

Dr. William H. Oglesby submitted his resignation to the Board of Directors of the Highlands-Cashiers Hospital last Wednesday. He has accepted a position in Tifton, Georgia, where he will be associated with Dr. Robley Smith. Dr. Oglesby and his family came to Highlands in June, 1966.

August 30th will be the last day he will be in his office. He has stated that for insurance and medicare reasons, he must take his patients' files with him, but would be very glad to furnish photostatic copies to patients who request their medical records be given to other doctors.

"THE CURIOUS SAVAGE" OPENS TONIGHT AT HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY THEATRE

John Patrick's fantasy-comedy, "The Curious Savage," one of the most popular plays in Modern American theatre, opens tonight at 8:30 p.m. at the Highlands Community Theatre under the direction of Michael Hall. Setting and costumes are by Frank Bennett, designer for Marion Players, Ocala, Florida. Seats are available for tonight's performance by calling Wit's End Shop at 526-3160 or the theatre at 526-2695. A reception for audience and actors will be held immediately following tonight's opening performance.

Three evening performances are scheduled tonight through Saturday with a 2:30 p.m. Sunday matinee August 17. Adult admission is $3.00. A special rate of $2.00 is available for students through high school age.

The play is a charming comedy suitable for family entertainment. The cast for "The Curious Savage" includes Marye Brent, popular dinner theatre actress who has played numerous John Patrick heroines; Dean Brown, professional actor and designer from Syracuse, New York; and theatre staff members Gary Cheatham, Debby Russell, and Sally Kline.
