BAPTIST NEWS

SUNDAY EVENING 7:30 p.m. A special song service will be at the First Baptist Church. The public response to the song service last month was great. Anyone from the congregation may request their favorite hymn to be sung.

After the song service there will be a period of fellowship and refreshments in the fellowship hall. The public is cordially invited. Come and worship with us in song and fellowship. We would like to get acquainted with you.

MACON COUNTY BAPTIST REVIVAL

The Macon County Baptist Revival will begin Monday Night August 18th - 30th. It will be at the Macon County Fair Ground located on the Franklin-Clayton highway. Local Baptist preachers will conduct the services. Plan to attend these services each night at 7:45 p.m. Special singing - everyone welcome.

BAZAAR AT CASHIERS

Next Friday, August 22nd, the Cashiers United Methodist Church will hold its annual Bazaar in the Education Building, opening at 11 a.m. They promise an unusual variety this year, with a good selection of handwork and handicrafts completed during the winter.

Flowers and vegetables will come from the gardens now at their best. And of course there will be home baking, home canned goods, and a white elephant table.

A sandwich lunch will be served at noon.

HOSPITAL PATIENTS

Patients this week at Highlands-Cashiers Hospital are: Julia Sheppard, Nannie Myers, Annie Murphy, Clara Belle Stewart, Florence Porterfield, Britty Henry, Carl Childers, Florence McKinney, Kermit Rogers, Carl Robinson, Lyman Zachary, Mary Tolbert, A. E. Deville, Mabel Knapp, Luther Owens, (CON'T P. 13)
