LOUIS S. EDWARDS

He is married to Rita R. Hinkle, a native a New York and a Registered Nurse who has given up her work for the time being to raise a son and daughter, Michael Raymond, two years old, and Tanya Ragina, nine weeks old. The Hinkles have spent the last five years in Vermont, four years during which Mr. Hinkle taught social studies in high school and one year at the University of Vermont.

They are members of the Episcopal Church. At the present they are living on Little Bear Pen Mountain in Mr. John Gordon's house, but will eventually move to a new home on Flat Mountain Road.

Mr. Hinkle anticipates a good school year and has announced the faculty for the coming year:

In the Primary grades, what used to be termed grades 1 through 4 will no longer exist. Last year the non-graded program was started and as is planned, will continue. In this program, teachers will work with groups of similar ability in the various skills (i.e. reading, math, etc.). The ages of the members of these groups will vary and membership itself will change as the students are challenged in different subjects.

A letter explaining this program will be sent to the parents of the children who range from ages 6 to 10 or who are attending their first four years of school.

Teachers working within this non-graded program are Mrs. Ruth S. Brown, Miss Hilda Sanders, Mrs. Irene James, a new comer this year, Mrs. Margaret P. Calloway, Mrs. Dick Potts, and teachers' aide, Mrs. Betty Wood.

In the elementary grades: Miss Ethel L. Calloway will teach the 5th grade, Mr. Jack C. Cabe will teach the 6th grade. Because of the number of students in the 7th grade, there will be two teachers, Mrs. Claudette Holland and Mr. Corbett R. Holland. Mr. Willard E. Garland will teach the 8th grade.

In high school are Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. DuPree. A new teacher, but a familiar face, is Mr. Doyle Calloway. Mrs. Carolyn Kinsland, also new, will teach vocational Home Economics. Mr. Thomas E. Bell, also new to this area, will teach Industrial Arts.

Mrs. Edith M. Henson will teach Special Education.

The same three members of the Teacher Corps will be here - Mr. and Mrs. James Bates and Joyce Hamilton.

It is not confirmed at this date, but possibly two members of the SMCADA, may teach elementary music and elementary art.

Mr. Alva Duke will conduct the chorus and music.

Mr. Doyle Calloway will coach the boys' basketball team.

Mrs. Joe Reese will serve as Librarian. A secretary is also needed.
