"THE ODD COUPLE"

Paramount Pictures' "The Odd Couple," proved to be one of the funniest motion pictures of 1968 - or any year - and one of the most successful. It had even hard-nosed motion picture theatre owners laughing - all the way to their banks.

"The Odd Couple", which plays Friday and Saturday, August 15 and 16, at the GALAX THEATRE had its world premiere in March of 1968 at Radio City Music Hall in New York. The third Neil Simon comedy to play at the 6,200 seat landmark theatre - "Barefoot in the Park" and "Come Blow Your Horn" both were winners-- it was generally agreed that "The Odd Couple" would follow the footsteps of its able predecessors and be a big money-maker. But few were prepared for the spectacular success of the motion picture.

In 14 weeks at Radio City Music Hall, the longest run for any film in the theatre's history, "The Odd Couple" grossed a sensational $3,096,629, the largest sum ever taken in by a motion picture at a single theatre.

"The Odd Couple" stars Jack Lemmon and Walter Matthau.
