HAYMAN L. OWENS DIES

Services for Hayman Luther Owens, 75, of Satola, Georgia, were held at 2 p.m. Saturday in Macedonia Baptist Church.

The Rev. Frank Reed and the Rev. Tommy Herrin officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Charles Payne, Edgar and Howard Owens, Charlie and Lawton Houston and Radford Picklesimer.

Mr. Owens was a lifelong resident of Satola and a retired carpenter. He was a veteran of World War I.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Ethel Miller Owens; nine sons, Harry of Woodbridge, Va., Bud of Winchester Bay, Ore., Euell of Franklin, Wayco of Clayton, Ga., Jayco and Romaine, both of Highlands, Clinton and Cleveland, both of Springfield, Va. and Charles Owens of the home; two daughters, Mrs. George Keener of Norcross, Ga. and Mrs. Fred Munger of Highlands; four sisters, Mrs. Ingram Houston of Franklin, Mrs. Andy Brown of Scaly Mountain, Mrs. Tommy Owens, of Satola and Mrs. Will Carver of Salem, N. J.; 38 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

FASHION SHOW SUCCESSFUL

The Fashion Show, Dinner and Dance held at King's Inn last Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Highlands-Cashiers Hospital was a tremendous success. Over 200 people enjoyed the outstanding parade of fashions presented by the Mary Norton Shop, as well as a delicious roast prime rib of beef dinner. Ronnie Evans and his orchestra from Franklin, N. C., provided a relaxed atmosphere of music for dancing. The total amount raised at this benefit was $1370.00 - thanks to a lot of hard work from the Phelans and the Mary Norton Shop, and the interest of the public.

OPPORTUNITY LIBRARY PROGRAM PRESENTED TO ROTARY CLUB

Ed Menninger, D. Sc., a member of the Stuart, Florida, Rotary Club, who spends his summers at Cashiers and has been attending the Highlands Club for many years, told local Rotarians and guests about the Opportunity Library which has been sponsored by his club for the last 30 years.

Menninger is well known in horticultural circles for his six books about plants and trees. A new book, "Flowering Vines of the World," an encyclopedia of climbing plants, is to be published this year. Prior to his retirement to devote his full time to study of horticulture, (CONTINUED ON PAGE EIGHTEEN)
