19TH YEAR OF PUBLICATION: DENDY, WHITMIRE, SUMMER EDITORS

This issue marks the beginning of our 19th year of publication with Dotty Dendy, Susan Whitmire and Sarah Summer serving as editors. We will miss Betty Holt on our staff this year. She was a valuable member of the Galax News for four years. Dotty Dendy is a student at Western Carolina University where she has completed her second year. Susan Whitmire was in the 1970 graduating class at Highlands High School and Mrs. Summer grew up in Highlands and has written for Highlands and Franklin newspapers under her maiden name of Sarah-Hicks Hines.

The staff of the Galax News looks forward to another season of reporting news and events of another "summer in Highlands."

CITIZENS' MEETING

A meeting of approximately 250 of the townspeople of Highlands was held at the Highlands School Saturday night, June 6. The purpose of this meeting was to discuss with the Hospital Board the most effective way to persuade Dr. Pate to reconsider her resignation from the Highlands-Cashiers Hospital, and to clarify recent developments of the Medicare Program as it affects the local hospital.

A resolution was signed by those present requesting Dr. Pate to withdraw her resignation, and a meeting with the hospital board was scheduled for Tuesday, June 9. Results of this meeting were not available at the time of going to press.

NINETEEN GRADUATE FROM HIGHLANDS HIGH SCHOOL

Unusually impressive were the commencement exercises held Thursday night, June 4, in the High School Gymnasium for the 1970 graduating class.

Seniors graduating were Donnie Claude Calloway, Neal Robert Chastain, John Daniel Crane, Joseph Gordon Dendy, Michael Edward Hedden, Henry Grady Keener, Henry Eugene McCall, Morris Edgar Nix,
