

BROTHER OF C. E. MITCHELL DIES

Lee G. Mitchell, age 62, died in a Greenville, S. C. hospital Tuesday, June 30. In addition to his brother, C. E. Mitchell of Highlands, he is survived by his wife and two daughters and one son. Mr. Mitchell had been in declining health for a period of approximately twelve months.

Mr. Mitchell had resided in Greenville for approximately thirty-five years. He had been engaged in transportation and had been connected with Huckaby Trucking Lines. He had been unable to work during the past year due to poor health. He was a native of Westminster, South Carolina.

LIBRARY TEA POSTERS MADE

Last Thursday a group gathered at King's Inn to make posters advertising the Tea which will be given Tuesday afternoon, July 14th, from 3 to 5 p.m. in the lobby of the Inn. Mrs. George Saussy, Miss Helen Augur, Mrs. Harry Long, Mrs. Polly Wax, Mrs. E. C. Kueh, Mrs. James Blair, Mrs. John Phelan, Mrs. Charles DeMorrow, Mrs. Paul Fifer, Mrs. Tom Allen and Mrs. Ernest Stevens made posters which are to be seen in stores of the business district.

The tea will feature a fashion show to be staged by Mary Norton's House of Fashion and an art exhibit of original paintings displayed by Chuck Duck, genial proprietor of the Original Silver Whistle.

Everyone is invited - including our husbands and men friends - to attend the tea and entertainment. Donations will be accepted which are needed to maintain the Hudson Library. An attractive door prize has been donated by the Highlands Art Gallery which will be given away at the close of the tea.

Next Monday, July 6th, the Miss Universe Luncheon and Fashion Show will be held at the Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami Beach, coordinated by Mary Norton who has "gowned" Miss Universe contestants since the inception of the contest seven years ago.

HIGHLANDS-CASHIERS GARDEN CLUB

Members of the Highlands-Cashiers Garden Club are urged to note that the date for the annual workshop to be conducted by Mrs. Donald Hastings of Atlanta will be from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Community Center on Wednesday, July 15. The change in date was made necessary because of a conflict in Mrs. Hastings' busy schedule.

Everyone interested in flower arranging is urged to attend this workshop. There will be no charge, but those attending are asked to bring a sandwich for lunch and their own container. Materials will be furnished.

The annual Garden Tour will start at 10 a.m. Wednesday, August 5. On the 1970 tour will be the new homes of Mr. and Mrs.

Walter Dahm, Mr. and Mrs. Turley Picklesimer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Long and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stevens. Cost of the tour, which includes transportation and luncheon at King's Inn will be $5.00 per person.

PRESBYTERIAN NEWS

Sunday School at 10 a.m.

Worship service at 11 a.m.

Nursery School is maintained in the Educational Building. The sermon this week is: "Can the Church Survive?" Text Matthew 16:18.

Rev. Mueller will be out of town July 6 - 12 attending NaCoMe Leadership Conference in Tennessee. This is a camp where the Presbytery's high school leaders, the Youth Council, receive instruction and training to guide them in planning the Presbytery's Youth Program for the coming year. Rev. Mueller is Chairman of the Youth Council.

HIGHLANDS HIGHLIGHTS

Colonel and Mrs. Paul Chmar of Washington, D. C., sons, Mark, Tod and Andrew are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Overton Chambers at their Buck Creek home. Mrs. Chmar will be remembered as the former Jan Chambers. Col. and Mrs. Chmar are enroute to Fort Bliss, El Paso, Texas, for Col. Chmar's next assignment.

Nora and Chris Brunson are spending two weeks in Norcross, Georgia, visiting their mother, Mrs. Carolyn Brunson and also Miss Alice Chastain. Miss Sheila Chastain is also visiting Mrs. Brunson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sargent have just returned from a very interesting tour of the Gaspé region of Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Mallory and children, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mallory Jr. and Betsey of New Smyrna Beach, Florida, recently returned to their home after a visit in Highlands.

Visiting Mrs. George Saussy are her daughters, Mrs. Edward Foley, Miss Kaffy Saussy and her grandchildren, Skippy and Kathleen, all of Columbia.

Mrs. Nell Phelps and daughters Becky and Nellie Carnes of Haines City, Florida, have arrived for the summer in Highlands.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scott and two children from Birmingham, Alabama, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Connatser at their home, "Changing Views" on Wildcat Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard McCall of Ohio are visiting Mr. McCall's parents Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCall.

Lt. Cdr and Mrs. James Beam and children, Susan and James Ernest from Vienna, Virginia, are visiting the Ernie Stevens.