THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 11)

Several of the students currently enrolled in the drama courses at HCT will also make appearances onstage. There are twenty-five characters in the play.

Frank Bennett has designed the living room setting and supervised set and costume construction. Local residents serving on costume crew are Peggy Ritterbush and Roni Cotter.

Patrons of HCT will have the opportunity to view the paintings of Mrs. Nell Lincoln which will be displayed in the theater lobby.

LIBRARY TEA (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 9)

Mrs. Ernie Stevens, President of the Library Association and her many hard-working committees, are to be commended for the beautiful job they did in so smoothly organizing the affair. Especially commendable was the work of the girls who assisted in the serving - Sharon Potts, Debbie Rogers, Ruth Worley and Mary Jane McCall.

You can't be sure of anything these days. Just think of all the mothers who 20 years ago, had their daughters vaccinated in places they thought wouldn't show.

NEW SHOP OPENS IN HIGHLANDS

The Cracked Pot which is located "on the hill" just above Mountain Findings is one of Highlands' most unique and interesting little shops. Operated by Mrs. Myra Freeman, it offers fascinating treasures from all over the world. Handbags from South America, bisque from Germany, glass from Italy, silver from Turkey and many unusual antiques to intrigue and tempt. Don't miss the Cracked Pot!
