"MOUSETRAP" OFFERS CHANGE OF PACE

-Emily Kingsberry (Asheville Citizen)
HIGHLANDS - "The Mousetrap" the Agatha Christie murder mystery which opened last Thursday night at Highlands Community Theatre, is a dramatic and effective change of pace from the sophisticated comedies played last month, and shows to advantage the versatility of the acting and production staff of this exceptionally good summer troupe.

A BREATH OF FRESH AIR -by John L. Wilhelm

How extremely fortunate you Highlanders are. Air-conditioned by nature without the necessity of changing filters or paying the electric bill. Gobs of fresh air for your lungs, all for the breathing. Mile after mile of oxygen-producing mountain greenery. Cascading waterfalls and purest of streams hurrying down to the sea to become eventually stagnated, tainted and polluted as it meets with industry's waste material and slime.

You are truly blessed by not having the complexities of ecological problems to face as do other communities of this country - fish, belly up from lack of oxygen occasioned by oil spill, waste residue dumping, DDT and insecticide saturation. All this contributing to the decline of wildlife.

FIREMEN'S BARBECUE SATURDAY

The annual barbecue held each August by the Highlands Volunteer Fire Department and Rescue Squad, will be held August 8 in the picnic area next to the fire station. The funds raised from this barbecue will be used to pay for needed equipment. Serving will begin around 11:30 at $1.50 per plate or barbecue buns at 75¢. The ticket-drawing for the winner of the new camper-trailer will be the main event of the afternoon. The tickets, at $1.00 each, may be purchased at the Town Office or from any fireman.

SQUARE DANCE FESTIVAL BIG SUCCESS

The 9th Annual Square Dance Festival held in the High School Gym Monday and Tuesday nights drew near-capacity audiences both nights.

Miss Belinda Talley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Talley, was chosen Miss Highlands of 1970 and was crowned by Miss Betty Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Holt, who was chosen Queen last year.
