20TH YEAR OF PUBLICATION

This issue marks the beginning of the 20th year of publication for the GALAX NEWS. Serving for their fourth year as co-editors are Dotty Dendy, a senior at Western Carolina University, and Susan Whitmire, a sophomore at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Working with us for the first time is Barbara Dendy, who will enter Western Carolina University this fall.

We look forward to serving you again this season.

W.E. CRUNKLETON SUCCUMBS

Services for William Earl Crunkleton 67, of Highlands, who died Wednesday at his home, were held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday in Highlands United Methodist Church, of which he was a member.

The Revs. Julian Aldridge and Harvey Stewart officiated. Burial was in Miller Cemetery.

Mr. Crunkleton was a retired farmer, a member of Carolina Hunting Club and a native of Macon County.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Annie Nicholson Crunkleton; a daughter, Mrs. Thomas B. Wright of Clemson, S.C.; a

HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY THEATRE ANNOUNCES 1971 PLAY SEASON

The musical comedy "The Boy Friend" will officially open the thirty-second summer stock season Friday, July 2 at 8:30 p.m. at the Highlands Community Theatre. Michael Hall, returning as director of the company for a third season, has announced that a preview performance will be given Thursday, July 1, but the official opening has been scheduled one night later so that regular "opening nighters" can support the Highlands-Cashiers hospital benefit.
