"THE BOY FRIEND"

JULY 1-4, 9-10

If you stop by the Highlands Community Theatre any night this week, you're apt to see sixteen eager cast members practicing the Charleston, the Black Bottom or singing any one of a dozen faintly familiar tunes of the 1920's. The HCT production of "The Boy Friend," a musical spoof of the flapper era, is now in full rehearsal at the Community Theatre under the direction of Mike Hall, music director David Hagan, choreographer Alice Haig Berman and script girl Karin Hagan.

Six performances are scheduled to begin Thursday July 1, at 8:30 p.m. A Sunday matinee, July 4, begins at 2:30 p.m., and evening performances resume Friday and Saturday, July 9-10, at 8:30 p.m. Reservations may be made by stopping at Wit's End ticket headquarters on Main Street between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. beginning Tuesday. Telephone inquiries may be directed to 526-2695.

OX ROAST FESTIVAL

The Ox Roast Festival should be of particular significance to all Western North Carolinians and those of us who call it our part-time home.

Legend has it that Flora MacDonald helped Bonnie Prince Charlie escape from Scotland to the Continent. For this, she was imprisoned in the Tower of London. After she was released, she came with a small band of refugees to Western North Carolina. After their first crop was gathered, Flora and her friends celebrated after the old English custom of roasting the ox. (CONT ON PAGE 13)
