HOSPITAL BAZAAR COMING SOON

There are only three more weeks before the Hospital Bazaar will be held. Interest in the affair is rising and activities are gaining momentum. Within the next few days, members of the Hospital Auxiliary will ask the merchants of Highlands for donations for the "Merchant's Booth" at the bazaar, always a popular feature for the merchants and shoppers.

OX-ROAST FESTIVAL

The first Annual Ox Roast Festival is now history. We hope that it was a pleasant chapter. We know that tired feet and impatient hunger resulted from the fact that approximately twelve hundred people turned up for a feast prepared for an expected six hundred - with a thousand considered as a wild possibility. (Next year there will have to be more serving lines, and dozens more of our

HIGHLANDS GIRL STARS IN PICTURE AT GALAX THEATRE

A child of the Smoky Mountains of North Carolina, who is a devoted wife and mother of three, Collin Wilcox-Horne doesn't seem the type to be playing April May, the seductive mistress of Babe Duggars, used car entrepreneur and racing sponsor in "JUMP", the Cannon Group's colorful new stock-car racing epic.

The versatile actress has been uniquely able to couple a most successful show-business career with motherhood. Married to actor-director Geoffrey Horne,

"THE DRUGSTORE" CHANGES HANDS

Announcement was made yesterday concerning the sale of Highlands Rexall Drugs by longtime owner, Clarence E. Mitchell to Mr. Jack Alexander. In making the announcement, "Doc" Mitchell, as he is known by his many friends and customers, stated that he would like to thank all his valued customers for their kind support and patronage through the years.

Mr. Mitchell was born in Anderson, S.C. and later moved to Westminster, S.C. where he was graduated from High School. An honor student in college, he is a graduate of the School of Pharmacy of the Medical College of South Carolina and has a Pharmacy license for South Carolina, Georgia and North Carolina.

Coming to Highlands in August, 1933; "Doc" worked for the late C.J. Anderson, who was owner of Highlands Drug Store at that time, and two years later became Manager of the Jackson County Bank. In 1943
