"OUR TOWN" OPENS AT HCT TONIGHT

The charming and moving Pulitzer Prize play, "Our Town," is now being presented at the Highlands Community Theatre. An unconventional but intriguing drama about life and love in a small New Hampshire town at the turn of the century, "Our Town" will be seen tonight through Saturday at 8:30 p.m., Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m., and again next Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:30 p.m.

Director Michael Hall has staged the production in a very unique and interesting manner. The leading role of the Narrator is played by Bob Niemyer, (CON'T ON PAGE 11)

FOURTH ANNUAL FASHION SHOW

Mr. John Phelan, owner of King's Inn announced this week that King's Inn will be the setting for the 4th Annual Hospital Benefit Ball, so make your reservations now!

The dinner, fashion show and ball which has been a glamorous highlight in the past three summers is planned for the 10th of August this year. Dinner will be served at 7:30 and will be followed by the fashion show and dancing. Models will show fashion from the Mary Norton Shop which along with King's Inn sponsors this event for the benefit of the Hospital.

HIGHLANDS IN GEORGIA?

Boundary lines have always been a bone of contention from ancient times, especially in these rugged mountains which were surveyed before good equipment had been developed.

Highlands finds herself right in the middle of one such dispute which has never been completely reconciled since it started in 1804.

Just this past Tuesday a Dekalb county legislator threatened to file suit in the U.S. Supreme Court to "recover" about 300 square miles of Tennessee and North Carolina land he says belongs in Georgia.
