HCT FINAL PRODUCTION OPENS TONIGHT

That brilliant, exciting comedy, "Lion in Winter", by James Goldman, opens tonight at the Highlands Community Theatre, for a two weekend run. It is an evening of sharp wit, much humor, and romance. This famous play deals with the scheming of King Henry II, of 12 th Century England in trying to choose an heir to his throne from among his three sons. Their mother, and his Queen, Eleanor of Aquitaine, favors the oldest son, Richard, but Henry wants John, the youngest, to succeed him. Geoffrey, the son in the middle, does some wicked plotting of his own to try and win the coveted crown. King Phillip of France, and his sister, Princess Alais, also add to the outrageous intrigues.
