"LION" CONTINUES, "NATALIE" COMING!

There are only two more performances of "The Lion In Winter", with guest stars Dr. Robert O. and Anee Juergens, playing the roles of King Henry and Queen Eleanor. Performances are this Friday and Saturday evening at 8:30, and good seats are still available, at Highlands Community Theatre and at Wits End Shop. But director Michael Hall is already in rehearsal for next weeks' final production of the season.

"Natalie Needs a Nighty", a hilarious side-splitting comedy is going to be presented as a money raising "extra" for the benefit of the theatre fund and the Town of Highlands Recreation Fund for the park project.

HUDSON LIBRARY BENEFIT TEA

The annual tea for the benefit of the Hudson Library will be held tomorrow (Friday) at the Presbyterian Church Sunday School Building from 2:00 to 5:00 P.M. Exhibits by local artists and collectors will feature flower arrangements, paintings, hobby collections, mountain crafts and many other items of interest.

There is no admission charge. Everyone is invited to attend.

The Hudson Library had its humble beginnings 90 years ago when a box of books was sent to Highlands from Massachusetts in memory of Mrs. Ella Hudson who had come here to restore her health in the mountains. The library has grown steadily over the years and has afforded reading pleasure to Highlanders and visitors alike. All expenses are paid from membership dues, contributions and amounts collected at the annual tea. No State or Federal monies are available to the Hudson Library. Needs are greater than ever due to increased cost of books and all operating expenses.

Refreshments will be served.

CANCER CRUSADE PARTY AT VZTOP

The annual cancer crusade party will be held Saturday, August 28th from 4:30 to 6:30 P.M. at VZTOP, better known as the Rainwater mansion atop Little Yellow Mountain. This affair is made possible through the courtesy of Dr. and Mrs. C.T. Mangum, the present tenants of the home. Admission will be by ticket only.
