

"HUSBANDS"

Harry, Gus and Archie have fallen in love with the most beautiful four-letter word in the language. Life!!! Cassavetes and co-stars Peter Falk and Ben Gazzara work beautifully together as three middle-aged buddies trying to escape from the reality of death and their own lives. The trio is so intense that a more appropriate title would be "Friends, as their feelings for one another are movingly and often hilariously portrayed. If scenes run too long then do incidents in real life, which is vividly mirrored in the film. Many scenes stand out: the vomiting sequence (uncomfortably realistic) the inept singing and drinking group, the opening funeral service, Cassavetes' vigorous love-making with Jenny Runacre. See husbands if you know what's good for you. It is an absolute must if you care anything about movies. It is such an enjoyable movie, such a terrific movie, that it will be talked about for years!" See husbands Tue-Wed August 24-25 at the Galax Theatre.
