

HCT -- CON't From Page One

"Natalie" is not included on the HCT season ticket. "Lion In Winter" is the last show on membership season tickets.

Tickets for "Natalie", this uproariously funny "extra" are also on sale at Wits End and at the theatre at the usual price of $3.50 for adults and $2.00 for children and students. No reserved seats. But for those wishing to donate more, Gold, Silver and Special Honor Roll tickets (2) are also available at $100, $50, and $25. Donations are tax deductable and donors' names are to be inscribed on special scrolls in the lobby of the theatre.

"Natalie Needs a Nighty" is a zany farce of mistaken identities, people hiding under beds and inclosets, with comic plot complications guaranteed to make you laugh. It is delightful entertainment for the entire family.

Support the Recreation Fund and Highlands Community Theatre, and have fun and laughs and a happy evening doing so. See "Natalie Needs a Nighty", evenings at 8:30 August 26,27,28, and closing with a matinee Sunday the 29th, at 2:30 p.m.

CANCER CRUSADE - CON'T FROM PAGE ONE

The Rainwater family gave the property to the Highlands Cashiers Hospital and the Pensacola Baptist Hospital some years ago, reserving a life estate. An offer to purchase the property has been received and is being considered at this time. This may be the last opportunity the general public will have to visit the magnificent home and enjoy one of North Carolina's most spectuacular mountain views.

Each contribution of $5.00 to the East Macon (Highlands) Chapter of the American Cancer Society will entitle the donor to one admission ticket. Donations may be made at the office of the HIGHLANDER, Wilton Cobb Realty, King's Inn, Lee's INN, Phelps House, Harry Long's office, Blue Moon Gifts, John H.C. Perry Insurance Agency, Wildcat Country Club, Highlands Country Club, Ann's Beauty Shop and at Richie's in Clayton. Tickets will also be on sale at the table in front of Wits End where Highlands Community Theatre reservations are made.

Because of limited parking space on Little Yellow Mountain ticket sales will be lim ted to 400. It is hoped that people will "double up" so that there will be an average of four people in each automobile. VZTOP is reached by turning left just past the country club then right on the paved road. Gates will open at 4:00 P.M.

A Handsome door prize has been donated by Mr. Arthur Trock and may be seen at the Highlands Art Gallery. Each ticket will be numbered, the stubs placed in a container at the party, and the lucky number drawn at 6:30 Saturday. It will not be necessary to be present to win as a record will be kept of all ticker holders.
