Mountain Bears Swamp Christians

The Lenoir-Rhyne Mountain Bears defeated the locals at Hickory by a score of 25-0. As has been the case in many previous games the Christians backfield would always fumble away its chances to score. The Bears scored two touchdowns in the first quarter; one on a fumble by A. C. C. and the other on a long pass. The second and third quarter rolled along with neither team scoring. However the fourth quarter saw the Lutheran score two more touchdowns by using a great many passes.

The locals came near scoring on the first play of the game after the kickoff. Denby took in a long pass but was overtaken before he crossed the goal line. His bad leg slowed him down considerably. The locals came near scoring when Captain Munn made a 60 yard run from scrimmage. He was also overtaken, and hauled down from behind. The most outstanding players for Lenoir-Rhyne were Steelman, Hagar, and Ritchie. Captain Munn was the star for A. C. C. Coach Anthony shifted his lineup somewhat, sending Big Banks to right tackle in Bailey's place, Forrest to right end in Bryant's place, and interchanging Munn and Howell in the backfield. Jake called signals for the team and Ranny ran at Jake's halfback position. The men to make the trip to Hickory were: Coach Anthony, Munn, Merritt, Weddell, Howell, Forrest, Banks, Uzzie, Anderson, Hardison, Cherry, Denby, Fulghum, Meekins, Bailey, Isler, Wiggins, and Bryant.

The lineup was:

A. C. C.	Lenoir-Rhyne
Denby	Winecoff
Cherry	Ritchie
Hardison	Lemon
Anderson	Steelman
Uzzie	Coley
Banks	Rumple
Forrest	Kiser
Howell	Hagar
Munn	Passour
Weddell	Coulter
Merritt	Jones
	Fullback

Campbell Defeats Christians At Dunn

The Christians bowed in defeat before the light but aggressive football team of Campbell College at Dunn on Saturday, November 24, by the score of 9-0. Campbell's score was made by a touchdown and a safety, both the results of blocked punts. The first score came when Williamson, Campbell tackle, broke through and blocked a punt one of his teammates recovering behind the goal line for a touchdown. The point was added by a pass. Williamson was also responsible for the safety made by his team. He blocked another punt and tackled the A.C. man who recovered behind the goal line. Thus Williamson was always a nemesis to the locals, his play was the brightest spot of the game. For the locals the playing of Captain Munn in the backfield and Forrest, substitute end, stood out prominently. Munn seems to have made a good change from quarterback to halfback, and Forrest has been playing a consistent game since being shifted from halfback to the flank position. Coach Anthony again shifted his starting lineup in an attempt to shake off the jinx and win a game. We are not trying to offer excuses for the loss, nor are we trying to underrate the Campbell team; but the gridiron at Dunn slowed up the Christians considerably, they being accustomed to the smooth grass covered grid at League Park. The men to make the trip were: Coach Anthony, Munn, Bryant, Denby, Cherry, Hardison, Anderson, Meekins, Banks, Bailey, Howell, Uzzie, Merritt, Forrest, Isler, Fulghum, Wiggins, Brinkley, Weddell, Hawkins and Scott.

The following lineup started for A. C. C.:

Anderson—Center.
Meekins—Right guard.
Banks—Right tackle.
Bailey—Right end.
Howell—Quarterback.
Munn—Left halfback.
Merritt—Fullback.
Substitutes: Forrest, Fulghum, Wiggins, Brinkley, Weddell, Hawkins, and Isler.

Only one more game remains on the schedule, Lynchburg College at Lynchburg on Thanksgiving Day. After the game at Lynchburg the team will disband and basketball will reign for the remaining winter months.

JOKES

Prof. Holsapple: Now Blasette, name America's greatest general.
Charles: General Motors.

Mardorie: Why has leap year an extra day.
Bob: To give the old maids one more chance.

Ruby Ricks: Whose cute little boy are you?
Howard Jr.: Be your age, whose sweet Mama are you.

Sarah: What is alimony?
Silas: Taxation without representation.

"Who belongs to the army of the Lord?" cried the evangelist.
"I do" came the answer from the back of the congregation.

"What brauch."
"The Christians."
"Get out, you don't belong in the army, you belong to the navy."

A minister had a son in college who was taking his final examination. The father wanted to know how his son was getting along. Gordon Bailey sent this telegram: "Hymn 254, verse 5, the las two lines. After puzzling for a while the father turned up the hymn and this is what he found. "Sorrow vanished, labors ended, Jordan passed."

FROM THE JOKE EDITOR

The pencil has been making a few pointed remarks about the sponge being soaked all day, the waste paper basket being full, the scissors cutting up, and the paper weight trying to hold them down. The glue has been sticking around to see a couple of stamps get a good licking. The ink is well, but appears blue, the calendar looks better since it has had a month off, and the blotter is taking it all in.

"Well, Prof." said the student suicide, loading the revolver. "Not to late to hand in a report."

Engineer: What engines shall we use?
Kimmy Williams: Oh, Delsell do.

Doctor Pittman: You certainly have acute appendicitis.
Myra S.: Oh Doctor, you flatter me.

HONOR ASSOCIATION IS VERY MUCH ALIVE IN OPINION OF MANY

ion and the Association." He further commits himself by stating that in his opinion he believes it is a good thing for the Student Association to have regular monthly meetings, at least, and if possibly, meetings more occasionally. By a coincidence, another member of the faculty makes the same recommendation, so there must be something to this, too.

The President Speaks

This is Mr. Hilley. He joins with Prof. Grim in thinking that regular monthly meetings would be helpful and stimulating to the growth of the Student Association, and declares, "If the purposes and the ideals of the Association were brought before the student body more often and more regularly, the organization would prove to be more effective. Chapel periods and other times should be utilized to get the Association's ideals before the students."

His answers to the questions: (1 & 2). "From my investigations I believe that cheating has been eliminated, and to a great extent."

(3). "No, because it has made no special appeal there."

Results Heartening

From the foregoing, two general conclusions may be drawn, all of which are heartening, and should be continued efforts along these lines endeavor to spur the student body to conditions above. That there has been a decided improvement is a compliment certainly to the young organization.

(1). All agree that cheating is on the wane; most of them think, to a great extent.

(2). While some think the deals of the Association are carrying over into other channels of student conduct, other frankly say that if it is they have seen no sign of such transference. Out of this it will be interesting to see what will emerge during the next few months. Some candidly say that the college spirit is finer, more wholesome, while others see no evidence of it. Is there any carrying over? We shall see.

THAD CHERRY, Tackle

Among the line stars of the Little Six Conference is Thad Cherry, sensational tackle of Atlantic Christian College football team. Although the 1928 team had a very unsuccessful season in every game Cherry played a great game making many tackles before the runner had a chance to get started. On the offense he made holes in the opposing line quite frequently. If a mythical all-star Little Six team were to be selected Thad Cherry would make a strong bid for left tackle. Cherry came to Atlantic Christian College three years ago from Rocky Mount along with Dunn, Brinkley, Mun, Riggan, Blow, Whitley, and James, a combination of players that made A. C. College's football team famous in the state. Ever since Cherry's first arrival he has been playing tackle and playing it right.

FRANK DENBY, End

From the far off Texas came a football player to the Atlantic Christian College, and a football player he has proven to be. Although rather light for a college player Denby has played a whale of a game at left end all the season. In selecting stars for a team composed of players from the smaller colleges in the state Frank Denby's name would certainly be mentioned.

This is just Frank's second year and if he continues to improve as fast as he has in the past great things can be expected of him before he is through.

Donald M.: Is this a second hand store?
Store Keeper: Yes sir.
Donald: Well I want one put on this watch.
