PAUL ARLINE PRESENTED IN SENIOR RECTAL

Mr. N. Paul Arline, Jr., pupil of Mrs. Elizabeth E. Yavorski, was presented in Senior Voice Recital in the College Auditorium last Tuesday evening. Miss Myra Joyner, pianist, pupil of Mrs. Nannelle Hinton, assisted. Mr. Arline's accompaniments were played by Miss Yavorski.

Hanging from some of the most technically difficult baritone arias, through the lovely German lieder, and down to the works of modern American composers, Mr. Arline's numbers showed the fine, rich quality of his voice which has mellowed considerably in four years' study. Mr. Arline's handling of the songs showed a growing ease of interpretation. His foreign language diction indicated well grounded linguistic knowledge.

Miss Joyner's excellent rendition of a piano group added much to the pleasing effect of the program.

HESPERIAN SOCIETY HAS FULL SEASON

As a whole the Hesperian Society has had a very successful year for 1933-34. At the beginning of the school year Miss Eva Mae Whitley presided over the meetings, and as president she was influential in the "campaign" for new members. All members worked together in a co-operative way with the officers, and they were successful in having 58 new members join them, making a total of 116 members. Due to the point system Miss Whitley had to resign and Mr. Rommie Mallison was elected president for the remainder of the semester. Mr. Paul Arline, vice-president and chairman of the program committee, furnished good and varied programs.

With the beginning of the second semester new officers were installed. Mr. Clinton Murray being President. The society is especially proud of the new program committee, which is headed by three vice-presidents. This does not place the responsibility of the programs on one person, and it has proved to be a big help in their work for the Program Cup.

Then came the debate. The Hesperians lost, but they were proud of their debaters, Oscar Brinson and Eric Dail. The night of the debate the Hesperian society succeeded in getting the most Alumni at the college, and for this they will be given an award on graduation night by the Alumni Association.

All members have responded in a fine way to the year's program, and it is hoped by the members that they will be successful in gaining the Program Cup as a reward for the real work and co-operation shown by the entire society.

The Religious Emphasis Week, which is an annual affair on the campus of our college was very successfully celebrated during the week of April 2-6 when a revival campaign was held in the college auditorium. Dr. F. W. Burnham, the pastor of the Seventh Street Christian Church of Richmond, Virginia, did the preaching. Dr. Burnham is a minister of some forty years experience, and the student body was very fortunate in having him speak to them. His experience has not only been in this country but he has travelled extensively and has served as a missionary to various parts of the globe. His addresses were well attended both by students and townspeople. Some of his subjects were as follows: "College Students and Religion," "What Would You Have Jesus Do For You," "The Abundant Life," "Religion as Worship," "Religion as High Adventure," and various other interesting subjects. Five students volunteered for Christ during this meeting: Henry Davis of Kinston, N. C., coming into the Methodist Church; Joe Spence of Kinston, N. C., Richard Barnhill, of Stokes, N. C., Thelma Smith, of Warsaw, N. C., and Hazel Riley, of Dunn, N. C., coming into the Christian Church.

The music for these services was under the direction of Miss Kathleen Roberson of Tarboro, N. C. Special music was rendered by Miss Eva Louise Shelton, and the Glee Club.

COLLEGE MAKING PLANS TO ENLARGE PLANT FOR THE COMING YEAR

colleges at the present time. Many of them are in terrible straits because during the days of prosperity they piled up debts for expansion purposes which they can not now pay and which drain their resources and interfere with their usefulness. A second favorable item is that the College has been operating through the depression without a deficit. This shows, of course, wise and careful management on the part of the administration but it also means that the College has had to go along these past few years without things which it greatly needs and must have now if it is to go forward.

The third favorable item is that of increased enrollment, which during the past two years have been approximately 35%. This is "remarkable" and "phenomenal," according to Dr. Pritchard, who stated he knew of no parallel situation.

The fourth favorable factor is the fact that educational surveys made sometime ago show that there is a place for a College in the Eastern part of the State. There is not the stiff competition which exists in other sections of the State where Colleges are only a comparatively few miles apart. The College in this respect occupies a "unique position," according to Dr. Pritchard.

President Outlines Program
President Hilley has outlined the immediate needs of the College. There are four absolutely necessary things which must be done if the College is to consolidate its present gains: (1) preservation of the building on the new site toward eventual use when times are improved to the extent that it will be possible to complete our building program (2) completion of the gymnasium; (3) beautification of the campus; and (4) an athletic field.

In addition to the four essential and necessary needs there are others which also should be provided if the College is to do its best work in the present location until the new location can be completed: (1) additional library space, especially reading room; (2) additional classroom space; (3) additional dormitory rooms; (4) a rest room for the town students; (5) and some necessary improvements to the building, such as painting, redecorating the chapel, and repairing the general work.

$1600 Pledged Friday, April 13
Later meetings with Wilson citizens have resulted in the setting up of machinery to raise $5,000 as Wilson's part, $1600 of which was pledged at a general meeting held at the Episcopal Parish House on Friday morning, April 13th. The City's part which is one third of the total amount considered necessary to finance the Expansion and Improvement Program is to go on the gymnasium. The churches of the State, through their committee which also meet last week, will raise the second third of the $15,000, $4,500 will be borrowed by the College on long term notes and paid off gradually. $500 will be the Alumni's part toward the total amount.

Members of the Senior class entering Atlantic Christian College in the fall of 1930 as nothing more than children, have grown to manhood and womanhood. Four years of hard studying, combined with a sufficient amount of recreation and social activities have made a great change. They have gained much knowledge; assumed an appreciable amount of dignity; have developed a capacity for leadership; and have learned to appreciate the finer things of life to an extent only possible to those who have labored four years in college under the best of supervision.
