Omega Chi

April 2 was a big night for Ome ga Chi when they held their annual spring banquet. This banquet was

Caldwell News

By DAVID HARVEY

With the end of the year drawing near, the thought of exams

ing near, the thought of exams is on everybody's mind.
We are happy to hear that Jesse Quinn has successfully recovered from a kidney operation. He was in the Woodard-Herring Hospital for approximately eight days.
Recently Sam Bundy was a winner in a theater contest. He won a month's peas to any movie here in Wilson.

in Wilson.

The fellows in Caldwell Hall would like to extend their appreciation to Mrs. Davis for being such a gracious house-mother. She, in turn, wants to thank all of the fellows for making her first year as house-mother a successful one.

Phi Kappa Alpha Holds Banquet

The members of Phi Kappa Alpha fraternity held their annual banquet and dance at the Cherry Hotel on May 11. The theme of the dance was a masquerade. Favors for the banquet were silver bracelets with raised Greek Phi Kappa Alpha letters on them. Music was provided by the La Mar Roberts' Trio from Raleigh. Dusty Rhodes was presented the Man of the Year award for his outstanding work within the fraternity this year.

work within the fraternity this year.

At the regular meeting on May 13 officers for next year were elected. They are as follows: president, Joe Bennett; vice-president, Charles Hughes; secretary, Henry Powell; treasurer, Wesley Doles; house president, George Griswell; sergeant at arms, Teddy Gates; chaplain, David Blackwood; intramural representative, Dick Tyson; Pan Hellenic Council, Littlejohn Faukner; reporter, David Herring; historian, Bobby Riley; men's dormitory council, Gene Godwin; co-editors of the Phi Ka, Bobby Watson and Bill Whitley; house president for this summer, Joe Bennett; and faculty sponsors, Dr. J. P. Tyndall and Mr. John Weems. In intramurals Phi Kappa came in second for the second straight year. All the men at Phi Kappa congratulate the men at Sigma Rho Phi for the fine job that they did this year by coming out on top. Although Phi Kappa was not on top this year; they did win soccer, foul shooting, volley ball, and field day. The comment at Phi Kap house is, as the Brooklyn Dodgers always say, "Wait until next year!"

Warren Tait, for his work with the group. We will be looking for his return in September as advisor of Sigma Alpha.

All the members were also glad to see Johnny Browning return to our brotherhood after a brief illness. Good luck in the future,

John.

In this last issue, the Hogans would like to pay tribute to their eleven senior graduates and wish them good luck in the future.

At the final meeting of the year election of new officers took place. Officers are Sherrill Goodman, president; Roland Jones, vice-president; Roland Jones, vice-president; Secretary, Steve Ginn; treasurer, Don Lee; Chaplain, Johnny Browning; sergeant-at-arms, Erail Price. All of the Hogans are expecting their newly elected officers to set a pattern for a new pledge program hext year.

Ship'n Shore Site Of Delta Sigma Dinner Party

The Ship and Shore Restaurant was the scene of a dinner party given by Delta Sigma Sorority. Food and music were enjoyed by the sisters and their dates.

The election of new officers will be held at the annual breakfast for seniors. The breakfast will be held on May 25 at Gold Park.

A few parties to round out this year have been planned. Plans for rush week next year have been discussed.

"We would like to thank our discussed.

"We would like to thank our brothers and everyone else who helped make the bridge tournament a success. Congratulations to Ronald Baker and Joe Dennis who won the tournament," said a Delta Sigma representative.

Phi Sig Honors Ollie Cuddington

Ollie Cuddington was awarded a most important title of "Woman of the Year" in Phi Sigma Tau soro-rity. This is the first year that in second for the second straight year. All the men at Phi Kappa congratulate the men at Sigma Rho Phi for the fine job that they did this year by coming out on top. Although Phi Kappa was not on top this year, they did win soccer, foul shooting, volley ball, and field day. The comment at Phi Kap House is, as the Brooklyn Dodgers always say, "Wait until next year!"

Sigma Alpha

Sigma Alpha held their banquet Saturday, May 18. The big event occasioned the meeting of the newly formed Alumni. The meeting with the banquet.

At this time the members of the Hogans would like to thank their advisor of the past year, Mr. Hellanic representative; and John May 10 and John Hellanic representative; and John Hellanic repre

Sigma Tau Has "Heavenly Look"

Omega Chi has begun making plans for next year, which they hope will be a very active one.

"That heavenly look" was the theme of Sigma Tau Chi's annual spring banquet, warch was a tremendous success. It was held at the Cherry Hotel, Saturday night, May 4, 1957. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the speaker, Mr. Sam Bundy. Amidst shining stars and silver moons, the sisters and their dates danced to the music of Charles Davis and his band. "That heavenly look" was the theme of Sigma Tau Chi's annual spring banquet, which was a tremendous success. It was held at the Cherry Hotel, Saturday night, May 4, 1957. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the speaker, Mr. Sam Bundy. Amidst shining stars and silver moons, the sisters and their dates danced to the music of Charles Davis and his band.

Ann Rivenbark and Patsy Ferrell, reporters.

On May 25, Saturday morning, at 6:00 Phi Sigma Tau will have its annual senior breakfast at Lamm's Cabin. The signing of annuals by all sisters, reminiscing, cutting-up and eatting will be the main highlights of this affair which is given in honor of the graduating members of the sorority.

(Continued From Page One)

Should be quite interesting.

A number of students plan to spend as much time as possible at various other beaches. where they will be just "loafing" and soaking up the sun. Among these are Barbara Felton, Sue and Shirley Jones, and Loretta Tyndall.

Back with the faculty, we have three industrious members who will be doing further study at Carolina this summer. They are Mr. Allan Sharp, Mr. Jack Scudder, and Mr. Robert Capps.

Mr. Earl MacFarlane and family will be making a trip to Cali. fornia come June 14. They plan to stop in Nebraska to visit relatives on the way cross country. They should see some interesting sights on the trip.

A number of students plan to spend as much time as possible at various other beaches. where they will be just "loafing" and soaking up the sun. Among these are Barbara Felton, Sue and Shirley Jones, and Loretta Tyndall.

Back with the faculty, we have three industrious members who will be doing further study at Carolina this summer. They are Mr. Earl MacFarlane and family will be making a trip to Cali. fornia come June 14. They plan to stop in Nebraska to visit relatives on the way cross country. They should see some interesting sights on the trip.

Congratulations are due to our president, Dot Anderson Moore, for being chosen Sigma Tau Chi's Woman of the Year.

Monday afternoon, May 13, at 4.00 Mrs. Cutlip and Mrs. West entertained at a tea for the soro-rity brides-to-be at Mrs. Cutlip's home. The honorees received beautiful sterling silver butter dishes with the soro-rities Greek initials engraved on them. Our future brides are Betty Coker, Betty Jean Garner, Ann Hathaway, Peggy Davis, Mary Ruth Ulrich, Dot Sanders, Betty ene Lee Margarret Morris, June Young, Toni Darden, and Dot Taylor. Jane Barnes Franklin, who is already married, was also honored.

Sigma Tau Chi recently elected officers for next year. They are as follows: president, Libby Griffin; vice-president, Sharon Hazelrigg; secretary, Dot Denning; corresponding secretary, Bille Ann Creech; treasurer, Lilllan Rabil; chaplain, Martha Jones; and Pan-Hellanic representative, Loretta Tindal.

Thirty-five Sigma Tau Chi girls

Stage And Script Closes Season;

Closes Season;

Stage and Script's production of "The Lark" brings to a close another successful season of drama at Atlantic Christian College. The two three-act plays and three one act plays were taken to the East. ern Drama Festival in Goldsboro. The season opened with Shaws "Pygmalion" and closed with Hemman's version of "The Lark" by French dramatist Jean Anouth. French dramatist Jean Anouth. Thirdal.

Thirty-five Sigma Tau Chi girls

Thirds And Script Closes Season;

Stage And Script Closes Season;

Stage and Script's production of "The Lark" by the Lark" by the season of drama at Atlantic Christian College. The track of the season opened with Shaws of the season of the successful season of the successful season of the s ga Chi when they held their annual spring banduet. This banquet was held jointly with their brothers at the Wilson Country Club.

Beside each place was a favor of white mugs, trimmed in gold, with black letters. On one side was the emblem of Sigma Rho Phi and on the other side was the emblem of Omega Chi.

The banquet consisted of broiled chicken with barbecue sauce, tossed salad, string beans, tea and Dessert Parfait.

Afterwards, the senior members of Sigma Rho Phi were remembered with gifts. An award was presented by Barbara Jean Creech to Dora Reason as the outstanding member of the year.

Speaker for the occasion was Charles Jones. Charles was president of Sigma Rho Phi last year. Soon after the banquet the tables were moved to make room for the rest of the night's activities. Everyone dreamily danced, Music was provided by the 'Plaids' from Kinston.

Omega Chi has begun making plans for next year, which they

Thirty-five Sigma Tau Chi girls attended the annual beach party at Carolina Beach the weekend of May 17. A good time was reported by all of the sisters and their

For our last meeting Sigma Tau For our last meeting Sigma Tau Chi met at the Recreation Park. Business was discussed, and games helped to work up an appetite for the weiner roast which followed. Congratulations to Doug Raper who recently presented a lovely diamond to Angie Haddock.

SUMMER PLANS

(Continued From Page One)

Dr. J. P. Tyndail, Leonard Bruffy, and Carol Austin appear to be anxiously awaiting the bloom of a bashful bulb. The greenhouse has been the scene of much activity among the tender young plant society at ACC. It is one of the most attractive and interesting spots on our campus.

at Atlantic Christian College. The two three-act plays and three one act plays presented covered varied subjects. Two of the three one act plays were taken to the Eastern Drama Festival in Goldsborn. The season opened with Shawi "Pygmalion" and closed with Helman's version of "The Lark" by French dramatist Jean Anouilh. Ellen Dennis, lead in both "Pygmalion" and "The Lark," will receive her key for points gained in both acting and back stage work. She has 108 points — a key requires only 80. At this point it is interesting to note that more students have received keys on technical work alone, than on acting merits.

Five students, Bill Boswell, Sandard Peale, Dulton Cleaver, Cle

merits.

Five students, Bill Boswell, Sandford Peele, Delton Glover, Claude Anthony, and Ted Hubert will receive letters for the accumulation of forty points or more.

The roster of officers for the 57-58 season is composed of students in varied fields of interest, ranging from business to social science. Ellen Dennis was cleeted president; Ted Hubert, vice-president; Mary Alice Howard, secretary; and S. D. Bundy, treasurer. Although the plans for a fall play are indefinite at the moment, there is a strong prospect that Shakespeare will be presented in some form.

'The Lark" Cast

The Earl of Warwick, Joe Harderee; Bishop Cauchon, Tommy Willis; Joan of Arc, Ellen Dennis; Joan's Father, Delton Glover; Joan's Mother, Anne Nelson, Joan's Mother, Anne Nelson, Joan's Brother, Roney Bunn; The Promoter, Ralph Messick; The Inquisitor, Leamon Sugas; Brother Ladvenu, Claude Anthory; Robert De Beaudricourt, Joe Harris; The Little Queen, Anne Bali; The Dauphin, Sanford Pellongueen Yolande, Doris Johns, Monsieur De La Tremouille, Buy Moore; Archbishop of Reims, S. D. Bundy, Jr.; Captain La Harbelton Glover: Executioner, Peur Moskos; English soldiers, Moore, Roney Bunn; Director, Doris Campbell Holsworth; Muss by Chapel Choir, directed by Lee J. Howard; Costumes by Dors Jenkins and Anne Ball; Lighting set up by Claude Anthony, Ted Hubert, Delton Glover, and Sa Peele; operated by Dusty Rhoden. The Earl of Warwick, Joe Harde

abroad is Elizabeth Casteen

plans to fly to Germany during vacation.

Priscilla Balance says she is giving to Georgia, to Virginia, and the the control of ing to Georgia, to Virginia, to the beach. She also plans go to summer school. Looks she has a pretty full summer school.

Whatever you have planned hope you enjoy it. It's a summer and it should be run.

More than 96 per cent of the cles involved in fatal accident U. S. highways in 1958 were apparently good condition.

Bad driving conditions prevalls in less than 15 per cent of fatal highway accidents in the 15 in 1956.

Next To The Post Office

Raines & Cox

Your Portrait-A Gift Only You Can Give 3051/2 E. Nash St.

Compliments

Of

Paschal Shoe Store

Home of Trend Tread For Ladies Rand For Men

THE JEWEL BOX, Inc.

PARKER'S BAR-B-Q

HWY. 301 SOUTH

Your Friendly Jeweler 209 E. Nash Street Wilson, North Carolina

Tweetie Serves The Very Best

If You Do Not Believe It Ask Mr. Norman Etheridge