Line Up A Date For '58; Omega Chi Plans Ring Dance

By GWEN STANLEY
The first dance in '58 will be the Ring Dance sponsored by Omega Chi. Remember this delightful occasion last year! The large diamond in the back of the dining hall was the stage for the introduction of engaged couples and was the outstanding decoration. A wedding cake was on a table and silver and green bows were everywhere! We plan to carry more of the diamond theme out in our decorations. We hope it will be dazzling and bright! And, oh, remember those pretty programs with the picture of a diamond on the cover? And do you recall the "Silver Notes" played musical numbers for rumba, tango, fox trot and the

Business Group Hears Teacher

The Business Club held its second meeting Thursday, December 5. Mrs. John R. Harriss, advisor of the Future Business Leaders of America Club at Charles L. Coon High School, gave a talk on becoming a member of this club and the advantages of being a member. The Business Club will sell tags at the Lenoir Rhyne game here Friday night and also at the East Carolina game. A hamburger fry was held Thursday at 5:30 in the "rec" room of Harper Hall, preceded by the assemblage of the tags.

Interesting Art Show Now Up

One of the most interesting art shows of the year is now on display in the ACC Art Gallery in the lobby of the Classroom Building. It is the Eighth Annual Circuit Exhibit of the Florida Artist Group. The show will be on display until December 20, it was announced today by Russell W. Arnold, Director of the local gallery. This is a very large group of paintings which the gallery cannot fully accommodate. It was necessary to make a selection of the best work in the group for the exhibit, Mr. Arnold said. The work is done by professional artists residing in the State of Florida. The work is generally literal or realistic in concept, but there are also examples of modern versions of Impressionism and Post-Impressionism, Expressionism, and semi-Abstract art. There are a number of different types of subject matter included in the show: portraits, landscapes, city scenes, and sea scenes. A number of different painting mediums are used: oil paints, watercolors, gouache, casene, and a number of types of mixed mediums. There are also a number of well-known artists represented in the show, including Jerry Farnsworth and Syd Solomon. All works in the

Students To Sing Christmas Carols

Student Christmas caroling will take place this year on Thursday, December 19, it was announced today by Miss Sarah Bain Ward, Dean of Women. Students will meet at 7 p. m. in the "Rec" room of Harper Hall and will then divide into groups to go caroling. She also explained that cars are needed for the group that will go to the E. N. C. Sanatorium to sing. Car owners should contact Miss Ward. Refreshments for carolers will be served in the dining hall following the tour of the city.

jitterbug? The dancing couples watched and thought they were having a "ball."

This year the attire will be party dresses — so bring out all taffeta full or slim styles. The men will wear suit and dancing shoes. Everyone is asked to add to their attire a big, bright, friendly smile! Engaged couples in dorms., frat. houses, sorority houses, day students and commuting students — any student of A. C. C., this is your dance. It is to honor you. The entertainment will be centered around engaged couples. Pictures will be made of the couples. This is your special night so we want to see everyone there to help celebrate.

The Ring Dance idea had its birth with the nucleus of present Omega Chi, Betsy Everette, and Mary Ela Griffin and Linda Lee in 1956. Last year the small Omega Chi sponsored it. The bigger Omega Chi is to try to offer a bigger, better, livelier and dandier Ring Dance! So come on — invite someone and dance honoring engaged couples on January 11, at 8:00!

Phi Sigma Tau Fetes Faculty

This past week, Phi Sigma Tau entertained the faculty and members of the other three sororities at open house. The house was decorated with the traditional Christmas decorations. The purpose of these occasions was to show these December has rolled around again so naturally our thoughts have turned again to Christmas. All of us are planning a big Christmas I'm sure, so before we go home for the holidays, let's make sure that we have helped some of the less fortunate to have a happy holiday. Just take a child's name and purchase a toy for only $1 and you will have made a happier Christmas for some little boy or girl.

We would also like to invite everyone to the annual Song Fest which will be held Sunday, at 9 p. m. in the Recreation Room. Special and group singing will be held during the program so y'all come; you're sure to enjoy it. Refreshments will be served immediately following the Song Fest.

This year we have decided to visit the Wilson County Home for the aged as a project instead of visiting the TB sanatorium as we have previously done. We have planned to visit the County Home before the Christmas holidays. We are going to pack individual bags of fruit and candy for people around the new (new to the members) sorority house. Along with the Christmas Bells, Wedding Bells will be heard during Christmas for two of our sorority sisters. Becky Keel will become Mrs. "Sticks" Hutchins, and Helen Nicholson will become Mrs. Joe Harris.

Mrs. Doris Holsworth and Miss Mickey Raynor Phi Sigma Tau's sponsors, have invited the members to a Christmas party at Mrs. Holsworth's home, December 17. At the party Christmas gifts will be exchanged.

The family which Phi Sigma Tau took as their Christmas project will certainly be happy this year. All the sisters are working extremely hard to provide this family with necessities.

PhiDelta Gamma Frat Slates Pledge Ritual Here Tomorrow

Phi Delta Gamma is in the middle of its twentieth year. Much had to be learned of the history of this organization, and we think our pledges have done a wonderful job of doing this.

A formal pledge meeting was held last Monday. During this meeting a written examination was given to all of the nineteen pledges. They were given a talk by their pledge masters, Larry Kluge and Charles Mercer, as to what to expect during the week of December 9-14.

Today at three o'clock the fun and harassment begins. The program will run through tomorrow.

Tomorrow afternoon a formal ritual to induct the pledges into the Fraternity will be had.

Immediately following the ceremony a stag supper will be given at Parkers for the new brothers with old members and alumni acting as hosts.

Mr. Gus Constantine, one of the sponsors, closed the meeting Monday night by giving the pledges a talk on fraternity life here on our campus. He also told why he himself chose Phi Delta Gamma. He closed his talk with the meaning of our Fraternity Motto, "Everlasting Brotherhood."

Move Over Tar Heels, Sigma Rho Wins 32 Straight; Still Rolling

The members of the Sigma Rho Phi are proud of their "A" football team. The "A" squad now has won 32 straight games and for the fourth consecutive year they are the champs.

each of the residents and sing carols.

Volleyball intramurals have just begun with Sigma Tau Chi and Omega Chi battling out the first game. Sigma Tau Chi came out victorious with Agnes Davis as high scorer. Many of our sorority members are playing ping pong right now. Ann (Blondie) Webb and Libby Griffin have advanced to the semi-finals in doubles.

Several of the themes on "Why I Chose Sigma Tau Chi," written by the pledges were read at the meeting and they proved to be very amusing and enlightening. Pledges, you're on the ball.

The club consisted of Ted Hubert and Maxie Clark at the ends, Tommy Willis at center, Franklin Brooks and Jimmy Fodrie as the halfbacks with Bob Wimberly running the team from quarterback. Dewitt Daughtry and Art Bishop ably filled in when called upon.

Willis, Fodrie and Bishop will graduate in June and there is a strong possibility that Hubert will depart sometime in August, but the rest of the fellows will be back again next season.

Last night began the ritual service for some of the pledges. It is the hope and desire of the Pledge Master and the fraternity to have all of the pledges become members before the Christmas Holidays.

Super Sub!

It's been said that the atomic submarine "Nautilus" stays submerged so long that it only surfaces to let the crew re-enlist. Perhaps for this reason, the Navy has taken valuable space aboard the "Nautilus" for the only soft-drink vending machine in the entire submarine fleet.

Naturally (or you wouldn't hear about it from us) it's a Coca-Cola machine. And not unexpectedly, re-enlistments are quite respectable.

Rugged lot, those submariners. Great drink, Coke!
