Joe Bennett Re-Elected Phi Kappa Alpha Prexy

At a recent meeting of Phi Kappa Alpha Fraternity, Joe Bennett was again elected president. Other officers elected are as follows: Charles Hughes, Vice - President; Wesley Doles, Treasurer; Donald Edwards, House President; George Littrell, Secretary; David Blackwood, Chaplain; Al Felton, Sergeant - at - Arms; Bill Shouldice, Historian; Connor Craft, Pan-Hellenic Council Representative; Bob Matthews, Men's Dormitory Council Representative; Littlejohn Faulkner and Henry Powell, Co-Editors of Phika; Lou Eaton, Reporter; George Tyson, Intramural Director; and Dale Gainey and Charles Hughes, Maintenance Men of House.

Phi Kappa Alpha held its annual Christmas party, December 15, at the Cherry Hotel. The members and their dates were served refreshments, and during the course of the evening, several games were played.

Thursday night, December 19, an alumnus of Phi Kappa Alpha, Russell Roebuck, held an open house for the members of the fraternity. Assisting Mr. Roebuck in entertaining the guests were Dr. J. P. Tyndall and Mr. Gene Barnes, fraternity sponsors. At the conclusion of the affair, the members joined in the traditional caroling at Harper Hall.

After a successful pledge program and a long hard week of initiation, Phi Kappa Alpha was pleased to bring into its brotherhood 23 new members. As a Climax to the initiation the old and new members went en masse to the Presbyterian Church on December 15.

Sigma Tau Chi Has Talent Show

Sigma Tau Chi, like the other sororities on campus, drew the pledge program to a close with the formal initiation on Saturday night, when thirty - four girls became members.

These thirty - four girls presented a talent show to their soon-to-be sisters on Friday night. The show consisted of musicals, dance routines, and plays. Just to give an example of what happened, Mary Rose Parnell gave her own version of "16 Tons," which read like this:

Some people say a pledge is made out of steel,
Their mind can think but their body can't feel.
Iron and steel and Hickory Tree
Frowns and gripes from 8 til 3.

You struggle many full hours and what do you get?
Another day older and deeper in debt.

You pay your dues in this and that;
Then for 24 days, your billfold's flat.

I was born one morning when it was cloudy and cool.

I picked up my paddle and headed for school.

I wrote 94 names on the paddle roll, and the sisters said, "Well Bless my soul!"

You struggle many full hours and what do you get?
Cuts and bruises and dirt and sweat.

I've got two black eyes and can hardly walk.

When I turn my back, then comes the talk,

I've got 55 brothers and 64 sisters
Half of them misses and half of them misters

The last day's over and I start for the door
My head's a ringing and my feet are sore.

I've pledged two whole months, My sisterhood is made,
But I still have my dues that have to be paid.

You struggle many full hours and what do you get?
Another day older and deeper in dept.

I'll go to St. Peter but I just can't die.

I gotta come back to Sigma Tau Chi.

Sigma Rho Phi Begins Sale Of License Tags

Sigma Rho Phi has joined in competition with the City and the State in the sale of automobile tags. The fraternity is selling automobile tags which read "Visit Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, North Carolina." They went on sale Tuesday. They are white letters on a blue background, which are the school colors. This project serves a dual role. First, it will help to publicize ACC and second it will help the fraternity to raise money to become affiliated with a national fraternity. All Students are urged to purchase these tags for their cars at a price of one dollar each. They can be purchased from any member of the fraternity.

Since returning from the Christmas holidays the members, both old and new, are getting into the act of intramurals and are making a pretty good showing in the program. The fraternity has a Championship to defend in two ways. First and foremost, to promote good sportsmanship, and to keep the sign of Championship in front of the house.

Plans are beginning to be made for the annual Spring Banquet but as yet, no definite date has been set for the affair, which is expected to be the biggest and best in the history of Sigma Rho Phi.

Engaged Couples Feted At Dance

Omega Chi opened the new year with their initiation program. Red and white beanie with the greek letters of Omega Chi on them were worn by the pledges during this week. We believe this to be a first on the ACC campus. After the Friday night ritual program, all the sisters of Omega Chi enjoyed a barbecue supper at Parker's.

The second annual ring dance sponsored by Omega Chi was held last Saturday night and was deemed a huge success. Jim Bishop, of our brother fraternity, did a swell job as Master of Ceremonies during the entertainment intermission. The entertainment included the Journeyman, who sang a few numbers, and Kay Johnson who did equally well in singing a variety of numbers. During this intermission five engaged couples on campus were honored with Cleo West singing their favorite songs as background music.

Couples honored at the dance were Martha Raye Dawson and Bill Boswell; Doris Jenkins and Elliott Darby; Beverly Riggs and Ivey Heath; Peggy Tetterton and George Strickland, and Betty Bain and Doug Dean.

Joe Davis and his orchestra provided some enchanting dancing music for the evening.

Omega Chi will lose two of its members at the end of this semester, Kay Johnson and Martha Raye Dawson. Martha Raye will become the bride of Tex Boswell, former student at Atlantic Christian, in February. Their destination will be Alaska after the big event. Mr. Boswell's parents are now making their residence in Alaska. Kay is transferring. With this, we say, "We're sorry to see you leave us, girls, and hurry back to see us."

Delta Sigma Holds Pledge Feed

A feeling of mixed emotions filled the members of Delta Sigma, as ten pledges became ten members of the sorority. The Delta Sigma banquet was held at the Ship N' Shore recently.

The sisters realized that they would now have to take their own trays in the Dining Hall and clean their own rooms. The pledges realized that no longer would they have to worry about wearing their colors and addressing the sisters as Miss.

After the ritual each pledge was presented with a sweater inscribed with Delta Sigma.

The new members are anxiously awaiting the next volleyball game so that they may wear their new sweaters.

SPRING REGISTRATION

ulty members will post their grades as quickly as possible after the completion of an examination so that students will be able to learn the outcome of their fall semester's work.

Drop - add period for the spring semester will run from January 28 to February 8.

In discussing academic probation, Dr. Cutlip disclosed that there are about 60 ACC students on academic probation at the present time. Many of these students are barely on probation, he explained, and it is hoped that they will make up enough deficit of quality points to remain in school for the spring semester. He said, however, that there are several bad cases and that probably some students will have to be dismissed because of academic shortcomings.

He said the number is far below that of the spring semester last year when there were between 90 and 100 students on probation and 60 of them had to be suspended.

Dr. Cutlip said there would be several new students enrolling at the college for the spring semester and that several students who have been enrolled at ACC in previous years will re - enroll for the spring term.

Delta Sigma still has a few directories left. Anyone who wishes to buy one may purchase them from any member of the sorority.

We would like to congratulate Linda Westbrook on her recent honor as attendant in the Miss Pine Knot court.

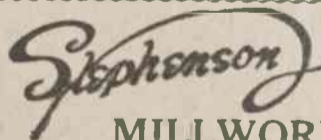

We would also like to congratulate Henrietta Hood on her recent engagement.

Claudette Saleeby Is Honored As Outstanding Phi Sig Pledge

After a successful initiation weekend, the most outstanding pledge, picked by her sisters, was presented a silver paddle with the Phi Sigma Tau Greek letters on it. This year the lucky girl was Claudette Saleeby. Congratulations to you, Claudette.

It seems that congratulations are all we can hand out this week. Betty Bain, Phi Sigma Tau's candidate for the Pine Knot Queen, was runner - up. She also received a diamond from Santa this year, along with Doris Jenkins, Kack Butt and Frances Howard.

Two of our sisters aren't coming back to Atlantic Christian next semester. Gloria Kirby and Em Moore have decided to become career girls for a while. Sorry to see you leave, and hurry back.

Just a small scoop from the girls in the Phi Sigma Tau House—Bev Edwards was seen in the kitchen with an apron on for the first time this year.

Sigma Alpha Praises Mr. Tait

With final preparations underway Sigma Alpha continues its work toward affiliation with Alpha Sigma Phi, national fraternity. We of Sigma Alpha are awaiting that moment with great expectation.

Mr. Tait, faculty advisor for Sigma Alpha, has served well in this capacity. His advice and comments have helped us in many ways.

The Hogans are displaying their leadership in the intramural program. After placing third in intramural football Sigma Alpha is hoping to win the badminton championship. At this time it appears to be certain.

In soccer Sigma Alpha seems to have a fine team developing. The lineup includes most of the crew who participated in football.
