

Harvest Dance Set For Saturday Night

By NANCY WALES

Sigma Tau Chi Sorority will sponsor the annual Harvest Dance Saturday night in the lobby of the Classroom Building. It will begin at 8 p.m.

The sorority announced today that its pledge captains will be Miss Peggy Greene and Miss Margie Dixon.

All Sigma Tau Chi pledges met in Miss Barbara Butler's room at Harper Hall at 5:00 Wednesday, October 29, and received their instructions.

The formal pledge ceremony for all Sigma Tau Chi pledges will be held Monday, November 3, at 4:30 p.m. at the Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity house. At that time the pledges will receive their tied ribbons.

At the meeting Monday afternoon the members of Sigma Tau Chi elected Miss Betty Boyette to represent the sorority in the Homecoming Queen Contest.

Mrs. Marys Littrell was elected chairman of the Homecoming Float Committee. Miss Peggy Greene, Miss Ida Sue Neighbors and Miss Joan Overton are serving on this committee.

The preparations for the annual Harvest Dance were nearing completion this morning. This afternoon members of Sigma Tau Chi will go to Miss Betsy Boykin and Miss Margie Dixon's homes to make cookies for the dance. The sisters are also going to gather leaves, cornstalks, bushes and trees to decorate for the dance.

Sig Ep Receives Scholarship Cup

Sigma Phi Epsilon has received the scholarship cup from the National Headquarters of Sig Ep as an award for achieving the highest scholastic average among the fraternities on campus.

Mrs. Essie Davis, house mother of Caldwell Hall, has been made honorary house mother of Sigma Phi Epsilon. The fraternity presented her a gift for her assistance during Rush Week.

Final plans are being made for the Homecoming Banquet which will be held on November 22. The banquet will be held at the Cherry Hotel at 5:30. The members and pledges have sent invitations to all alumni and their wives and also to their sister sorority Omega Chi. The main speaker for this event will be Richard Whiteman, Executive Director of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Hugh B. Johnston, Professor of Foreign Languages, has been accepted for membership in Sigma Phi Epsilon. He will be initiated into the fraternity in the near future.

License plates are still being sold by the fraternity members. Anyone may purchase one of these for $1 from any member of the fraternity.

Delta Sig Selects Contestant

By H. E. BARKLEY

Miss Nancy Forbes of Wilson has been chosen to represent Delta Sigma Phi in the Homecoming Queen Contest. The queen will be crowned at the William and Mary Basketball game on November 21.

During last week, which was Rush Week, approximately sixty boys visited the frat house. They toured the house, met the brothers and were served refreshments. According to Lou Eaton, "Rush Week was a very successful week."

On Monday night, Delta Sig will feté the new pledges at a supper. The affair will be stag and will be held in Elm City.

Delta Sigma Phi has been chosen to serve a dinner for the Baptist Ladies Convention which will be held in Wilson. The convention will be held at the Wilson Community Center on November 6.

The fraternity is making several plans for the future. A hayride is being planned for all the new pledges. The big brothers are being picked for each pledge for pledge week.

Two weddings are being planned for November and December. Paul Blake will marry Miss Eleanor Herring, President of Sigma Tau Chi, on Thanksgiving Day. On December 28, Abner Gore will wed Miss Kay Fore, a member of Sigma Tau Chi.

Phi Delt Talks With Nationals

Phi Delta Gamma Fraternity is currently corresponding with three national social fraternities concerning affiliation, it was revealed this week by John Anthony, Phi Delt president.

Anthony said all three of the fraternities had contacted him by letter asking that Phi Delt consider affiliation with them. The three fraternities are Sigma Pi, Phi Kappa Tau, and Kappa Sigma Kappa.

Anthony said four other fraternities had also written to him about affiliation but that they were not being considered by his local fraternity.

At its meeting this week, held Monday night at the fraternity house, members of Phi Delta Gamma named Miss Glenda White as its candidate in the Homecoming Queen's contest. Miss White is a member of Delta Sigma Sorority.

In other action the fraternity named Mark Roberts to serve as chairman of a committee to construct a float to be entered in the Homecoming Parade. Members of the committee to serve with Roberts have not yet been named.

A discussion of training for pledges also was held at the meeting. Pledge master for the fraternity is Clay Phillips.

Omega Chi Has Halloween Party

Omega Chi Sorority held a Halloween party at its meeting Monday afternoon. Refreshments were served and the traditional Halloween theme was carried out during the meeting.

Miss Patsy May was elected to represent Omega Chi in the Homecoming Queen Contest.

Omega Chi elected Miss Patt Murray, Miss Patsy May, and Miss

Joyce Johnson to serve on the Design Committee for the Homecoming Float.

Omega Chi Sorority and Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity will hold a brother-sister banquet at the Hotel Cherry on November 22 for the alumni, pledges, and members.

Miss Nancy Coker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Coker, was elected as an unofficial mascot for Omega Chi and attended the meeting Monday afternoon.

Miss Emily Poe was elected as the new Historian for Omega Chi.

Theme Of Parade Revealed Today

Plans for this year's homecoming parade which will be built around the theme "Around the World in Eighty Days" have been announced. The homecoming parade will be held on Saturday morning, November 22, beginning at 11:00 a.m.

The dead line for entry of floats is today. All entries must be given to Miss Mickey Raynor of the Physical Education department by today.

The parade will start on Nash street at the Cherry Hotel. It will progress down Nash Street to Bynum and then go down Bynum to Lee. On Lee the parade will go to Whitehead, and then down Whitehead to College Avenue where it will break up.

A reviewing stand will be set up in front of the court house. The homecoming dignitaries and the judges will view the parade from this point. The parade is to be judged by three local merchants. As in the past three prizes will be presented; first prize $10, second prize $7.50, and third prize $5.00. The floats will be judged on originality, beauty, and on how well they relate to the theme. The winning floats will be announced at the half-time of the basketball game on Saturday.

If groups are in need of trucks on which to build floats, they should see Miss Raynor for information. It will be announced at a later date where the floats will be built. The deadline for completion is Thursday, November 20, at 5:00 p.m.

Group To Attend Church Meetings

A group of students will represent Atlantic Christian next week in area meetings of the Disciples of Christ held in Asheville, Greensboro, Robersonville, New Bern, and Dunn. Students attending these meetings are Miss Nancy Roberson, Miss Sandra Modlin, John Elliott, James Kirby, Miss Peggy Bivens, Miss Norma Ralph, Bob Collins, Ken Duan, Miss Nanelle Ed-

Alpha Sigma Phi Names Sponsor

By DAVE HARVEY

At a short meeting held by Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity on Monday night, John Dunn was initiated as a sponsor of the fraternity.

Mr. Dunn, a member of the faculty in the Science and Mathematics Department, became the second advisor to be accepted into Alpha Sigma Phi. Warren Tait, also a member of the Science and Mathematics Department, was initiated earlier in the capacity of sponsor.

On Monday, the members of the fraternity had a through clean-up of both the inside and outside of the fraternity house.

President Don Lee and the Rushing Chairman, A. E. Thompson, spoke to the pledges at a formal pledging ceremony at the fraternity house last night at 9:00 p.m.

With the second half of the football season underway this week, the fraternity is looking forward to a better second half and perhaps a top place finish.

Delta Sigma Studies Rush Week

By MARY A. MARCHANT

During the last meeting of the Delta Sigma Sorority, Rush Week activities were discussed. Elected pledgemaster for the coming activities was Miss Lynne Crews. Miss Peggy Pittman, president of Delta Sigma, announced at this meeting that the formal pledge ceremony will be held at the regular meeting of the sorority on Monday, November 3, at 4:00 p.m., in the Chapter Room of the Phi Delta Gamma house on Whitehead Avenue.

It was also at the meeting Monday that homecoming plans were made. Miss Pittman was elected Homecoming Queen candidate for the sorority and Miss Glenda White was chosen to head the committee for the homecoming float.

It was announced that Miss Glenda White and Miss Nita Brown are to be in charge of refreshments at the next meeting.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

(Continued From Page One)

student activity fee has been distributed through a system based on a per-centage allotment for each student. This year each of the organizations dependent on the student activity fee has submitted an itemized budget for approval. This necessitated a new record keeping system. The new system was explained by Mr. Milton L. Adams, Business Manager of the college.

Upon receipt of a letter from the United States National Student Association regarding ACC's being host for a convention of the organization, a committee headed by Jimmy Boswell was appointed to study the possibility of housing the delegates. Also serving on the committee are Miss Sally Jo Griffin, and Dr. Dan McFarland.

Another letter from the USNSA was read regarding sponsoring foreign students. The Executive Board decided to request further information.

Discussion of the possibility of providing one-half price tickets for student activities for the wives or husbands of married students was held. The Executive Board sent a recommendation to the Athletic Committee calling their attention to this matter.

President George Griswold reported on the North State Student Government Association meeting held in High Point on October 22. He reported that the conference will choose an all conference cheerleading squad composed of the outstanding cheerleader from each school in the North State conference. It was reported that an outstanding student government will be chosen from the conference each year. Griswold also reported that no one attended the USNSA Presidents and Deans meeting in Greenville last week.

The Executive Board passed a motion to pay for repairs on the record player that is part of the public address system in the Bohunk.

President George Griswold presided at the meeting.

DEADLINE

(Continued From Page One)

will accept no more contestants." 4 p.m. Wednesday afternoon in the Harper Hall parlor.

The contestants will make an appearance on television on Friday, November 14, over Television Station WITN, Channel Seven, in

176 STUDENTS

(Continued From Page One)

Al Parker, John Parker, and Douglas Vass.

Students pledging Alpha Sigma Phi were Jimmy Adams, Bill Bass, Erick Bowen, Ray Brewer, Don Kasmer, Mickey Nance, J. P. Renfrow, Don Ryan, Jimmy Trivette, Bill Uzzell, and Billy Woodall.

Pledging Phi Sigma Tau Sorority were Dorothy Adcock, Margie Allen, Linda Lou Alphin, Judith Gray Barnes, Elizabeth Bell, Carolyn Brown, Helen Bunn, Cinda Bunting, Brenda Cale, Ann Cartwright, Pat Cording, Norma Carolyn Dunn, Nanelle Edmundson, Frances Evett, Shirley Gaskins, Mary Johnson, Sandra Johnston, Joan Joyner, Martha McFarland, Sally McLean, Catherine Pappas, Carolyn Pearce, Dot Ricks, Betty Rogers, Nancy Rogers, Leslie Sermons, Cynthia Smith, Gladys Smith, Vickie Stott, Tucker Uzzelle, Margaret Walker, Lou Warner, Becky Webb, and Betty Woodlief.

Pledging Sigma Tau Chi Sorority were Barbara Barefoot, Janet Blackwood, Joyce Burgess, Marsha Coley, Retha Dixon, Becky Jo Flora, Nancy Forbes, Jeanne Godwin, Joanne Godwin, Suzanne Goudy, Ann Hamilton, Mary Lina Hill, Betsy Hunter, Linda Lankford, Ann Lee, Betty Lewis, Helen Lewis, Sandra Modlin, Gwill Newsome, Zilphia Peacock, Ann Russell, Lynn Sharpe, Gayle Skiles, Dorothy Smith, Jane Smith, Edna Speight, Sandra Spell, Carolyn Stanley, Peggy Stanley, Judy Strickland, Frances Sullivan, Frances Sutton, and Faye Westbrook.

Students pledging Omega Chi Sorority were Bonnie Batts, Peggy Bivens, Jo Ann Boone, Sarah Bost, Carol Colvard, Susie Davis, Jo Ann Ellis, Erelene Head, Peggy Keene, Janice Kilby, Eleanor King, Linda Lou Langdon, Billie Magee, Mary Ann Marchant, Linda Mills, Linda Morris, Norma Ralph, Nancy Roberson, Margie Rose, Jackie Russell, Betty Shackelford, Dorothy Stillel, Kay Strum, Nancy Weddle, and Elizabeth Wells.

Pledging Delta Sigma Sorority were Brenda Bullock, Joyce Dudley, Shirley Herring, Sybil Hill, Dorothy Humphrey, Janice Huggins, Judith Parrish, Eva Nan Summerlin, and Claudia Tolston.

Washington, at 1:30 p.m.

They will also appear at the Woody Herman Dance scheduled on the campus on Monday night, November 17, Mrs. West said.

Alumnae Fete Phi Sigma Tau

Members of Phi Sigma Tau Sorority were entertained at their last meeting by their alumnae sisters. The girls were served pop corn and cokes along with trick-or-treat bags.

Plans were made at this meeting for the Homecoming Supper. Miss Hilda Sermons was chosen as the sorority's candidate for Homecoming Queen. A committee to be in charge of a float theme and decorations for the sorority house was also chosen. Miss Annette Fuller will be in charge of this committee.

It was announced by Miss Francis Howard, president of Phi Sigma Tau that pledgemasters for pledge training activities will be Miss Wilma Hairr and Miss Marty Temple.

Concert Season To Open Tonight

The Community Concert season in this area begins tonight at Rocky Mount with a performance by the National Symphony from Washington, D. C.

Everyone who has purchased a membership in the Community Concert is eligible to attend all community concerts presented in the Wilson area. There is a possibility that extra tickets may be available for this concert. If you have tickets which you are not planning to use, or if you desire a ticket, see James V. Cobb, professor in the Music Department.

Edmundson, Miss Peggy Greene, Miss Ida Sue Neighbors, Ed Mercer, Ken Brinson, Miss Linda Lankford, Miss Gayle Joyner, Jimmy Mitchell, Miss Beverly Edwards, Miss Carolyn Miles, and Miss Louise Wells. These students will sing at

It All Happens Happily On A Heaven Of A Houseboat . . .

They'll float your heart away on waves of love and laughter . . . and oh, those devilish kids!

Cary GRANT

Sophia LOREN

"HOUSEBOAT"

in TECHNICOLOR

with 3 Wonderful, Mischievous Kids

Starts SUNDAY WILSON

Hear Love Song From "Houseboat" "Almost In Your Arms" "Bing! Bang! Bong!"

RICH POPULAR

(Continued From Page One) Mrs. West said the first meeting for the contestants will be held at any, or the hospital, I hope I will be called upon for anything."

It is also significant to note that Mr. Rich not only has the full time responsibility of being dean, but he is carrying a full teaching load. This is the first time that an administrative official has done this.

MOVIE MENU

Weekly Program

Starting Sunday, Nov. 2

Rory Calhoun

Beverly Garland

"THE SAGA OF HEMP BROWN"

(CinemaScope - Color)

Theatre Opens Daily 12:45 Shows Each Day 1-3-5-7-9

Starting Wednesday

From The Top Of The World—

A New

World Of Wonders

Walt Disney

Presents

"White Wilderness"

(Glorious Color)

A.C. Students 35c

(Except On Sundays)

DIAL 2571

CENTER

Wilson's Showplace