Homecoming Begins Tonight

Nancy Forbes Is Named Queen

By JIM BISHOP
Collegiate Editor

A pretty brunette freshman from Wilson, today was named Homecoming Queen of Atlantic Christian College.

The new queen is Miss Nancy Forbes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Jack Forbes of Wilson. She enrolled at Atlantic Christian College in September and is planning to study for a B. S. degree in Primary Education.

The announcement of Miss Forbes' selection was made by Mrs. Jan T. Boles and Mrs. Lynne N. West, co-chairmen of the Homecoming Queen's Committee. Mrs. Boles said the panel of judges recorded five ballots before deciding on the queen.

Runners-up in the contest were Miss Beverly Edwards, a senior from Fort Pierce Beach, Fla., and Miss Flora Griffin, a sophomore from Wilson.

The three finalists were selected from a group of 19 contestants who have been judged all week by the panel of jurists made up of W. D. Adams, Jr., Mrs. Dave W. Woodard, Mrs. W. C. Herring, Lee Johnson, and Harry W. Severance.

The start of balloting was Monday when the contestants met the judges at a tea in the Harper Hall Parlor. Monday night the judges saw the contestants again at the Woody Herman Dance.

Miss Forbes represented Delta

Sigma Phi Fraternity in the contest. Tomorrow morning she will begin a round of festivities as she reigns over the college's annual Homecoming. She will be presented first at a breakfast of alumni leaders Saturday morning at 8:30 a.m. in the college dining hall.

FINALISTS—Miss Nancy Forbes, seated left, was named Homecoming Queen today. Runners-up in the contest held this week are Miss Beverly Edwards, standing, and Miss Flora Griffin, seated right.

The new queen will ride on the queen's float in the parade and will then attend the alumni luncheon and business session at noon in the college dining hall.

Speaking for the judges, Mr. Severance said the group had never been assigned a more difficult task. "All the girls were beautiful," Mr. Severance said. "The three in the finals cannot be commended too highly. The balloting was very close and the judges want all the contestants to know that each should have been a queen."

Miss Edwards is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ebie Edwards of Fort Pierce Beach, Fla. She will be graduated next spring with a B. S. Degree in Elementary Education.

Miss Griffin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Earl Griffin of Wilson. She is seeking an A. B. degree in Business Administration. Miss Griffin represented the Campus Christian Association in the contest and Miss Edwards was sponsored by Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity.

Students Ready For Thanksgiving

Atlantic Christian College students and faculty members are looking forward to a short vacation next week to observe Thanksgiving.

The annual holidays will begin following the Evening Classes on Tuesday. Classes will be resumed at 8 a.m. Monday morning.

It will also be a holiday for the staff of the campus newspaper, The Collegiate. The next edition of The Collegiate will be published on Friday, December 5, James W. Bishop, Collegiate Editor, said today.

Administrative offices will be closed from Wednesday noon until Friday at 8:30 a. m., it was announced.

Faculty Group Will Seek Grants For ACC Students

A definite program has now been set up for students seeking financial assistance to further their education on the undergraduate or graduate level.

Dr. Millard P. Burt, ACC Dean, has announced the appointment of Hugh B. Johnston, member of the faculty of the Modern Language Department, to serve as chairman of a committee to assemble and study all available information regarding scholarships, fellowships, and grants — any type of financial aid — for students.

This area of student service is one which has not been thoroughly investigated in the past. Consequently, students desiring financial aid for further study have found it necessary to seek out on their own initiative whatever opportunities there may be. The function of the new committee is to serve as intermediary between eligible students and colleges and universities offering financial aids.

The Scholarship Committee is composed of one member from each department. Those serving on the committee with Mr. Johnston are Mrs. Lynne N. West, Business Department; Dr. Vida Elliott, Education Department; William T. Ramsey, English Department; Robert K. Black, Fine Arts Department; Edward L. Cloyd, Jr., Health and Physical Education Department; Eugene Purcell, Religion Department; Miss Janet Winstead, Science and Mathematics Department; William F. Troutman, Jr., Social Science Department. Miss Winstead is serving as the

Classes Conduct Meets Tuesday

During the regular assembly period Thursday, the sophomore, junior, and senior classes held their regular monthly meetings. The freshmen met with their advisors.

At the Sophomore Class meeting, a suggestion was made that a class social be planned. Discussion of the suggestion was tabled until the next meeting. Led by cheerleaders Miss Peggy Greene and Miss Elizabeth Winborne, the class learned some of the new cheers for this year. After the general meeting of the class the float committee met to hold discussion on the Homecoming parade float. Miss Ruby Bazemore, Vice-President, presided in the absence of

After a hectic week of preparations by students and faculty members, Atlantic Christian College will launch its annual Homecoming Weekend tonight.

Some of the luster was rubbed off this evening's program earlier in the week when the Friday night basketball game was postponed because of a conflict with the state championship football game to be played in Wilson tonight.

Homecoming will open tonight, however, with open houses for alumni being held by faculty and administrative personnel.

A full day of activities is scheduled for tomorrow. The activities will begin at 8:30 o'clock in the morning with a breakfast for alumni leaders in the college dining hall. James D. Daniell, Director of Alumni Affairs at ACC, will preside at the breakfast with Harold Harding of Washington, D. C., Assistant Director of the American Alumni Council, as the principal speaker.

The fruits of the labors of Atlantic Christian College students will be on display at 11 a. m. tomorrow. That's when the annual Atlantic Christian College Homecoming Parade will pass through downtown Wilson and on to the college campus. In the chair of honor in the parade will be Miss Nancy Forbes, the college's Homecoming Queen.

The parade will be followed by a luncheon and business session for alumni in the college dining hall at noon. Dr. Griffith A. Hamlin, Goldsboro, President of the Alumni Association, will preside at the luncheon.

Several college leaders will take part in a panel discussion in Howard Chapel at 2:30 p.m. "The Role of Alumni in Admissions," will be the subject of the panel. Dr. Millard P. Burt, ACC Dean, will serve as panel moderator. The panelists will be Dr. Mildred Hartsock, Chairman of the Department of English at the college, Kenneth Brinson, ACC student, Bruce W. Riley of Wilson, Executive Vice-President of the National Bank of Wilson, and Miss Madeline Tripp of Raleigh, Elementary Supervisor for the State Department of Public Instruction. Resource leaders will be James D. Daniell, Director of Alumni Affairs, and John E. Weems, Director of Admissions.

A campus Open House will be held at 3:30 p.m. in all campus buildings. Refreshments at the Open House will be served in the Bohunk.

At 5:30 p.m. fraternities and sororities will have suppers for

Third Herd Rocks Rafters At Big Dance

Rafters in the Atlantic Christian College gymnasium rocked Monday night as Woody Herman and his Third Herd set up stables for a night of entertainment.

A large crowd of students and faculty members attended the big dance sponsored by the ACC Interfraternity Council and, between dances, reminisced. It was in the late Thirties and the Forties that Woody Herman appeared on the musical horizon. His Woodchoppers were a favorite swing band of the big band era.

Monday night the Third Herd had a much different sound than the Woodchoppers had during their heyday. The modern jazz influence has permeated Herman's style. His new band leans heavily on contemporary jazz. However, for the benefit of those who enjoyed the Woodchoppers so much in their day, Herman presented some old Woodchopper arrangements Monday night. Some of them were "Blues On Parade," "Caldonia," and "Woodchopper's Ball."

It was the biggest dance ever held on the Atlantic Christian College campus. It is estimated that about 400 students and faculty members attended. As man observed as danced. The sponsoring Interfraternity Council could term the dance a great success.

Herman's band was not the only highlight, however. The presentation of Homecoming Queen contestants at half-time proved to be a most entertaining event. Miss Sharon Hazelrigg served as mistress of ceremonies and presented the contestants and their escorts.

The contestants presented were Miss Gail Joyner, escorted by Rex Cooper, Miss Frances Evett, escorted by H. E. Barkley, Miss Frances Sutton, escorted by Elliott Smith, Miss Beverly Edwards, escorted by James Mitchell, Miss

Jay Jenkins, escorted by Jay Prillaman, Miss Larue Matthews, escorted by Sherrill Goodman, Miss Angie Haddock, escorted by Douglas Raper, Miss Martha Temple, escorted by Don Lee, Jr., Miss Nancy Forbes, escorted by James Hodge, Miss Betsy Hunter, escorted by James Liles, Miss Glenda White, escorted by Robert Coefield, Miss Peggy Pittman, escorted by
