

Informal Buffet Dinner Is Given For ACC Faculty

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Wenger entertained September 6th at an informal buffet dinner in the dining hall on the campus of Atlantic Christian College. The affair honored the faculty and staff at the college, their husbands and wives.

Upon arrival guests were invited into the Recreation Room where a first course of tomato juice and cheese straws was served. Dean and Mrs. Millard Burt greeted everyone and presented the guests to Dr. and Mrs. Wenger.

Miss Sarah Bain Ward poured tomato juice from a silver punch bowl arranged on a table overlaid with a white cutwork cloth. Silver compotes, holding a single white burning taper and miniature arrangements of green grapes and greenery, flanked the punch bowl. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Rosa Tyndall, Miss Jessie Daniel, Mrs. Janie Johnson, and Miss Ann Solomon.

Following the social hour everyone was directed to the dining hall for dinner. The buffet table was covered with a white linen Damask cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow fugi and pom-pom mums, flanked by three-branch silver candelabra, holding yellow tapers. Fried chicken, tomatoes, green beans, potato salad, relishes, biscuits, ice tea, and coconut cream tarts were served.

Everyone was seated at smaller tables marked similar to the buffet with yellow tapers and green ivy. Assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Milton Adams, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. R. Worden Allen Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James Daniell, Mr. and Mrs. James Hemby, and Mrs. David Gray. The ladies also assisted in serving at the buffet.

The total number of guests for the occasion was approximately 120.

Football Tickets At Reduced Prices

Atlantic Christian College students are being given a break this year when they purchase tickets to watch the Fike High School football team play in the local stadium.

Students may purchase tickets on the day of the game at the high school building for 50 cents. Admission at the gate is $1.25 per person.

A former president's home and fraternity house, the building has recently been renovated and attractively redecorated as an additional residence for women. The Hilley house is conveniently located at Gold and Whitehead across from the classroom building. Six of the girls are freshman and the remainder are upperclass women transfers.

Programs Planned By Campus Radio

WACR, campus radio station, has recently moved from a studio in the White House to a room in the student office building next to Tweeties.

The staff has remodeled one of the rear rooms and expects to return to the air within the coming week. The addition of a third turntable will facilitate programming.

Officers of the staff are as follows: E. B. Shearin, station manager; Doug Ouzts, program director; John Todd, business manager; Richard Rivers, business manager and Donna Melhorn, secretary.

Positions on the announcing, technical and business staffs are open. Interested students should contact officers or attend the staff meetings every Monday at six o'clock in the new studio.

Anyone desiring to have announcements made or wishing to contract paid advertising should contact the program director.

Featured in the new program listings is a request program which will be broadcasted from 9 p.m. to 11 p.m. each day.

Samuel C. Stell Now With State

Samuel C. Stell, Assistant Professor of Education and Director of Student Teaching at Atlantic Christian College, recently resigned from the college faculty to accept a position with the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction, Raleigh, according to an announcement by Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, president.

Mr. Stell completed his work with the college at the close of the Summer Session.

The post left vacant by Mr. Stell has been filled by Gene Ashton Purvis of Belhaven, N. C.

Stage And Script Holds First Meeting Of The Year

Stage and Script held the first meeting of the year on Wednesday night, September 13.

Guy Miller, president of the club, announced plans for the fall play. The group will present "Twelfth Night" by William Shakespeare, on November 1 and 2, with the possibility of a matinee on Friday, November 3 for high school students. Mrs. Doris Holsworth, director, described the play as a gay comedy. She gave a short sketch of each character to aid club members in choosing parts to read for tryouts.

The following have become apprentice members of the club: Linda Burgess, Mary Tyre, Ann Lockerman, Jean Shimer, Barbara Baldwin, Anna White, Mary Latham Nelson, Jeanie Copeland, Happy Hodges, and Randy Ratterree.

Guy Miller announced that the previously elected treasurer, Virgil Smith, would not return to school this year. It was decided to combine the offices of recording secretary and treasurer as a temporary measure.

The next regular meeting of the club will be on Wednesday, September 27, at 7:30 p.m. in the chapel. Margaret Walker and Sandra Freedman will give an account of their recent New York trip. At this time also, committees will be formed for work on the play. All those interested are invited to attend this meeting.
