Co-Op Election Results Told

Mrs. Holsworth Honored By Club At Career End

Last night was the end of an era at Atlantic Christian College. The curtain fell on Mrs. Doris Holsworth's final drama production at the college — "Hedda Gabler."

Mrs. Holsworth, known to members of Stage and Script as "Duchess," is scheduled to leave in June and join the Peace Corps. She has been at ACC as a member of the English faculty for the past 15 years. In this time, she had directed some 75 plays for Stage and Script and countless outside projects.

at the close of the performance last night, Bob Lindley presented Mrs. Holsworth with a volume of bound letters collected from Stage and Script members for the past 15 years.

The dedication was printed on back of the program and was titled "To Our Director."

It read as follows:

"With this production of 'Hedda Gabler' an era comes to a close. Our director, Mrs. Holsworth, is retiring in June and is joining the Peace Corps.

"There's no people like show people,' there's no director like Script. She has the art to work us to death, without our even knowing it; you cannot tell her 'no'; that word along with 'impossible' is not in her vocabulary. You cannot know her without loving her.

"A woman who is a symbol, a symbol of vitality, of courage and of accomplishment. A woman who has taught us to act, to look into spotlights without blinking, to do a job well; but she cannot teach us to calm the butterflies of opening night.

"She has the dedication of Joan of Arc, the intestinal fortitude of David, and the understanding of Solomon.

"It seems that we are building her up to the sky, and we mean to do just that. We want her to know how much we, the members of Stage and Script, the student body, the faculty and the citizens of Wilson appreciate her art.

"To you, Duchess, a very simple, humble and appreciative, Thank you."
