

The Collegiate

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, SEPTEMBER 27, 1963

NUMBER TWO

Dr. Marney To Address AC Students

The first in a series of religious speakers, sponsored by the Campus Christian Association, Dr. Carlyle Marney, will address the Atlantic Christian College Student body on Thursday, Oct. 3. Dr. Marney's topic will concern "The Significance of the Church in the Student's Life."

He was born in Harriman, Tennessee, in July, 1916. He was graduated from Carson Newman College where he received his A. B. degree from versity. He is occasional preacher at Yale, Duke Chapel, Colgate-Rochester, and more than fifty other colleges and universities. He has traveled extensively in South Ameri-

CARLYLE MARNEY

Carson-Newman College, and his Master of Theology and his Doctorate of Theology at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Dr. Marney has served on the Study Committees of the World Council of Churches, the Theological Commission of the Baptist World Alliance, is a Trustee for the Christian

Omega Chi To Hold Fish Fry, Oct. 4

Freshmen and transfer students will be guests of honor at a fish fry to be held Friday afternoon, Oct. 4, four o'clock at the Sigma Phi Epsilon house on Nash St. Hostesses for the affair will be Omega Chi Sorority.

Entertainment for the event will be furnished by John Day, local musician, and other special numbers will be presented by the sisterhood of Omega Chi.

All attending should be in casual dress.

Also attending the event will be sponsors of the sorority and administrative heads.

Smith Speaks At BSU Meet Coming Events Announced

Dr. William Smith, secretary of the department of student work of the Baptist State Convention was guest speaker at the first meeting of the school year of the Atlantic Christian College Baptist Student Union which took place Monday evening in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church. Preceding Dr. Smith's talk, approximately thirty-five old and new members were feted at a supper in the church.

"Christian Involvement on a College Campus" was the topic of discussion for the evening. During his talk, Dr. Smith presented suggestions concerning a medium to be found among religious, academic, and extracurricular activities. The talk was concluded by stressing that SCHOLARSHIP CUP AWARDED — Shown above are David Peebles, president of Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity, and Don Johnson, scholarship chairman of the fraternity, as they received the sixth scholarship cup for the highest fraternal academic average for the 1962-63 school year, from Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, president of the college. This award has been presented to Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity every year since the first cup was awarded by the National Fraternity in 1958.

Freshman Girl Dance Scheduled For October

The annual "Most Popular Freshman Girl Dance," sponsored by the Sigma Pi fraternity, will be held Oct. 4, 1963. The dance is to take place in the main ballroom at the Cherry Hotel. It will start at 8:00 p.m. and last until 11:45 p.m. The freshman girls will have riding privileges for that evening. The admission for the dance will be $1.25 per couple or $.75 stag. The dress for the dance is casual.

The Rhythm Rockets, a well-known group from Rocky Mount, will play for the dance.

The highlight of the dance, one of the few off-campus dances, will be the selection of the "Most Popular Freshman Girl."

The contestants, dressed in their "Dogpatch" costumes, will be presented before intermission. At intermission, the runner-up and the winner will be announced by the master of ceremonies, Jerry Leach.

The candidates are as follows: Marilyn Bittle, Williamston, N. C., Phi Sigma Tau; Pam Herczogh, Ar-

See DANCE Page 4

Mr. Capps Heads Dept. Of History

Robert G. Capps, associate professor of sociology, has been named as interim chairman of the Department of Social Studies at Atlantic Christian College, according to an announcement by Arthur D. Wenger, president of the college.

A native of Norfolk, Va., he has been a member of the ACC faculty for nine years. He was awarded the B. A. degree by the College of William and Mary and the M. A. degree from American University. He is currently completing requirements for the Ph.D. degree at American University.

Capps is a member of the American Sociological Association, Southern Sociological Association, and the American Association of University Professors. He is married to the former Doris Frasier of Norfolk, Va., also a member of the ACC faculty. They have two children.

Mr. McGill Joins College Faculty

The English Department of Atlantic Christian College has a new addition, Mr. William McGill. Mr. McGill, Associate Professor of English, comes to us from Millsaps College, where he was visiting Professor of Philosophy.

Mr. McGill was born July 8, 1923, the son of Kathryn R. and Claude E. McGill, Sr. of Shelbyville, Tennessee. He did his undergraduate study at Wake Forest College and has done graduate work at Vanderbilt University, the University of Tennessee, and Boston University. His professional experience includes Instructor in English, University of Mississippi, 1948 - 50; teaching assistant, University of Tennessee, 1950-54; Assistant Professor of English and Speech, Tenn. Wesleyan College, 1954 - 1959.

Mr. McGill is married to Natalie Teeple McGill of Cookeville, Tennessee, and they are members of the Methodist Church.

Executive Board Views Pertinent AC Problems

The Executive Board of the Co-operative Association of Atlantic Christian College held their regular meeting Monday night in room 210 of the classroom building. President Maurice Belanger opened the meeting with a report on the Freshmen elections which were to be held Wednesday.

The Committee that had been set up to investigate the Rules of Procedure, which were introduced by President Belanger last week, gave a report and recommended that a committee be appointed to study and act on the report of the first committee. They also recommended that the appointed committee bring in authoritative aid which might include legal advice, faculty, and NSA. There was some discussion on the findings of the first committee on the question of the powers of the Executive Board in Constitutional matters, however the recommendation was passed by the Board.

The Committee on Committees presented a list of persons who had been notified and were willing to serve on the Bohunk, Concert and Assembly, and Social Committees. They are: Bohunk; Senior - June Abbot, Junior - Lynn Osgood, Sophomore - Richard Surles, Freshman - Betsy Nash. Concert and Assembly. Senior - Arnold Neilson, Junior - Becky Lennon, Sophomore - Lynn Norfleet, Freshman - Steve Woodcock. Social. Senior - Patricia Collins, Junior - Sammy Jones, Sophomore - Pam Larmer, Freshman - Janie McCormick. A member of the faculty will serve as co-chairman with the Senior member of each committee.

Robert Royal, the National Student Association Co-ordinator a ACC and ex-officio member of the Cabinet introduced a mandate as follows: The 1963 Executive Board mandates the President of the Co-op to write the President of the United States, the Governor of Alabama, and the Mayor of Birmingham, Alabama expressing our outrage and grief over the killing of innocent children caused by the "the folly of racial injustice and hatred and violence." Mr. Royal spoke for the mandate by saying that a church-related institution of higher education such as Atlantic Christian College must speak out against the killing of innocent people when they are only pursuing their God given

See BOARD Page 4

Owens Selected Freshman Leader

Freshman elections were held on Wed., Sept. 25, in the lobby of the Classroom Building. A new Freshman president was elected and the remaining offices were decided in runoff elections held the following day.

Lloyd Owens was chosen the new president of the Freshman class.

The following candidates were voted on in the runoffs: vice-president, Ronnie Lambert and Tommy Riley; secretary, Connie Altman and Marshall Boykin; treasurer, Billie Elliott and Carol Wells; senator, Lucy Biggs, Stuart Lee, and Phill Ritter.

SNEA Plans Meet

The executive committee of the Student National Education Association has outlined plans for the ACC chapter for the coming year.

The first meeting will be held on Thurs., Oct. 3, at 4 p.m. in the Chorus Room of the Music Building. All prospective teachers and interested persons are invited to attend.

FERRANTE AND TEICHER — Shown above is the popular piano duo which will appear here in Wilson later this year for a concert. Today is the last day that students may purchase memberships in the Wilson Community Concerts Association; memberships (which include additional concerts also) are on sale for the last time today at the Music Building.