

The Collegiate

C. L. HARDY LIBRARY
ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE
WILSON, N. C.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, OCTOBER 11, 1963

NUMBER FOUR

CHORUS—Shown above is the ACC Chorus which will attend the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ at Miami Beach, Fla. The group under the direction of Mr. James Cobb will give a performance at the Convention and also at Stetson University in Deland, Fla., on their return trip.

ACC Chorus To Perform At Disciple Convention

The Atlantic Christian College Chorus will participate in the Communion Service at the International Convention of Christian Churches at Miami, Fla. on October 13 and will be heard in concert at the First Christian Church at Deland, Fla. on Oct. 14.

The students are leaving today and will return Wednesday.

Representing ACC will be Gina Allen, Jane Reynolds, Karen DeHart, Marcia Kalfelz, Scarlett Mills, Carol Horne, Jessie Burt, Ann Hayes, Janice LaCelle, Kathy Trayler, Arnold Nilson, Paul Wilson, Tommy Baker, Sam Jones, Rex Horne, Charles Burt, Jimmy Daugherty, Steve Perry, Bob Raiford, Steve Woodcock and John Reynolds.

The Miami Beach Assembly of the International Convention of Christian Churches will convene tonight. The meetings will be held in the Miami Beach Convention Hall and will last until Oct. 16. The theme of the Convention is "The Whole Armor of God," and this theme will be carried out by multiple sessions each day dealing with a variety of subjects. The convention will be highlighted by an address by R. Sargent Shriver, director of United States Peace Corps.

Those attending the Convention from Atlantic Christian College are Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Wenger, Dr. John R. Scudder, Jr., Dr. William E. Tucker, Mr. R. Worden Allen, Jr., Mr. R. Hatten Hodges, Jr., and the ACC Chorus directed by Mr. James V. Cobb, Jr.

Hatten Hodges Is Named To AC Post

Roland Hatten Hodges Jr. of Wilson has been appointed Director of Alumni Activities at Atlantic Christian College, according to Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, president of the college.

Dr. Wenger said, "Mr. Hodges' appointment as Director of Alumni Activities brings a new and stronger emphasis to this important phase of work at ACC. Previously our alumni work has been coupled with other major responsibilities. Under this new arrangement it will approach full-time status. Mr. Hodges has demonstrated his qualifications to give outstanding leadership in our alumni work. While a student he served in numerous roles which have helped to prepare him for his new duties. We feel fortunate in having him associated with the college."

Hodges is a native of Raleigh and was graduated from Atlantic Christian College in 1963 with the bachelor of arts degree. While attending ACC Hodges was editor of The Collegiate and winner of The Wilson Daily Times Publications Award which is an annual presentation given to the student who shows the most promise in the field of publications.

Hodges was also awarded the Faculty Cup his senior year. This award is presented each year to the student who has the best general record in the college. Winning this cup is considered not less distinctive than achieving the degree which the college confers.

A member of the Golden Knot Honor Society and the Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity, Hodges held two elective offices in student government. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hodges of Wilson and is married to the former Nancy Weddle of Asheville.

Peace Corps Test Is To Be Oct. 19

There will be a Peace Corps placement test given on Saturday, Oct. 19, at the main Post Office in Rocky Mount, N. C. The test will begin at 8:30 a.m. It is not competitive but designed only to determine the relative skills of volunteers in various fields in order to determine which ones for which the applicants are best qualified.

Requirements for the Peace Corps are American citizenship, a high school education, and an age of 18 or over. Married couples are eligible if they have no dependents under 18 and both qualify.

Before taking the test, it is necessary to fill out the Peace Corps Questionnaire available at all Post Offices. The questionnaire should either be sent to Peace Corps Headquarters in Washington, D. C., or brought to the test center.

Bids Are Received By Greek Rushees

Rush at Atlantic Christian College for the fall semester is complete as rushees receive their bids today. Bids may be picked up at noon in the campus post office on general delivery.

All bids, whether accepted or rejected, should be returned to the office of Dean Bennett by twelve o'clock on Monday. All bids not returned by this time are automatically void.

Exec Board Discusses Budget

By STEVE LOVE

The Executive Board held its regular meeting Monday night, Oct. 4th, in room 212 of the Classroom Building. The main topics of discussion centered around the budgets submitted by the Concert and Assembly and Stage and Script Organizations. The budgets for the groups had been tabled until further information could be secured.

Mr. Cecil Willis, director of Stage and Script, was called upon by the Board to explain the need for the $800 increase in his organization's budget. Mr. Willis stated that the main portion of the increase will be used for restoring the lighting facilities of Howard Chapel which are in dire need of repair. The Chapel is used by other groups on the campus and it has been the policy of the school to leave the maintenance work to the Stage and Script Club. Mr. Willis further stated that costumes, the switchboard, storage, microphones, backdrops, and stairs are among the problems with which the Club has to contend. Last year the Club presented six plays which cost approximately $200 apiece and this year they will present 13 plays at a cost of approximately $145 each. After considerable discussion the Board passed the Budget.

Mr. James Cobb was asked to explain the submitted increase in the Concert and Assembly budget. Mr. Cobb commented that Atlantic Christian could not have a well rounded program of popular and cultural concerts on the $1,600 which has been the budget of Concert and Assembly for the past few years. Most "Hot Campus Groups," such as "Peter, Paul and Mary" and others do not even begin to fit into a $1,600 budget. Mr. Cobb proposed that with a $4,000 budget ACC could afford to get outstanding attractions and with added money from the sale of tickets to these events, more attractions could be had. The $2,400 increase was approved by the Board.

Several proposals were made by members of the Board concerning the amount of admission to be charged at the forthcoming "Four Preps Concert." Rex Horne proposed on admission charge of $.50 but it was defeated by the Board. Richard Surlis recommended $1.00 as the admission charge but it was also defeated. It was finally decided that the amount charged should be left up to the Concert and Assembly Committee which is handling the Concert.

WINNERS—Sally Cox from Washington was elected by popular vote as "The Most Popular Freshman Girl" last Friday night. Jay Barnhill, a senior from Benson, was elected as "Mr. Top Hat" on Saturday night. Both were sponsored by Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity.

Cox, Barnhill Are Selected

Club Has Meeting

The Accounting Club of Atlantic Christian College held its first meeting on Thursday, Oct. 3, 1963. There were approximately 20 people attending this meeting. It was decided that the Club would meet on the first Wed. night of each month at 7:30 p.m. in room 104 of the classroom building. The Club welcomes new members who are interested in accounting. The officers for the year are: President, Richard Keel; Vice President, Charles Price; Secretary-Treasurer, Grover Dees, and Reporter, Jay Hare.

Miss Sally Cox, a day student from Washington, N. C., was crowned The Most Popular Freshman Girl Friday night at a dance sponsored by Sigma Pi fraternity at the Cherry Hotel.

Miss Cox, sponsored by Sigma Phi Epsilon, was among seven candidates competing for the honor. The dance was a Sadie Hawkins affair.

Jay Barnhill, representing Sigma Phi Epsilon, was crowned "Mr. Top Hat" at the annual Top Hat Dance Saturday night in the lobby of the Classroom Building. James Britt was Master of Ceremonies for the event, which was sponsored by Phi Sigma Tau Sorority.

Jay is a senior from Windsor, N.C.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS—Pictured above, left to right, are the Freshman Class Officers of 1963-64. Carol Wells, Treasurer; Stewart Lee, Senator; Connie Altman, Secretary; Lloyd Owens, President; Lucy Biggs, Senator; Ronnie Lambert, Vice-President.