

'Alumni College' Planned During ACC Homecoming

Former students at Atlantic Christian College will be given a detailed picture of recent academic advancements at their Alma Mater at the first annual "Alumni College" to be held on the campus during Homecoming slated for Feb. 1.

The Alumni College will feature 50 minute lectures by the chairmen of the institution's 10 academic departments followed by question and answer periods and will cover current developments in each respective field.

Russell W. Arnold, chairman of the Department of Art, will have as his lecture subject, "Pop Art; Trend or Fad?" George Harry Swain, chairman of the Department of Business, will have as his subject, "Education for Business in a Liberal Arts College."

Dr. Kenneth D. St. John, chairman of the Department of Education and Psychology, will speak on "State and National Accreditation Agencies; Their Effect on Teacher Education." Subject for the lecture by Dr. Mildred E. Hartsock, chairman of the Department of English, will be, "Who's Afraid of the Big Bad 'Beats'." (Literature in America, 1964.)

Edward L. Cloyd Jr., chairman of the Department of Health and Physical Education, will have as his topic, "Current Trends in Physical Education Instruction." Dr. Esther L. Long, chairman of the Department of modern languages, will speak on "Recent Trends in Modern Language Instruction."

James V. Cobb Jr., chairman of the Department of Music, will have as his lecture subject, "Music and the Liberal Arts Curriculum." Dr. William E. Tucker, chairman of the Department of Religion and Philosophy, will hold a panel discussion on "The Church in America Today."

"Advancement and Aspirations of the Department of Science and Mathematics," will be subject of the lecture by Dr. J. P. Tyndall, chairman of the Department of Science and Mathematics. Dr. Robert G. Capps, chairman of the Department of Social Studies, will have as his lecture topic, "The Assassinations of Presidents of the United States;

See HOME COMING Page 4

Ballet Performance Set For Jan. 15-16

The next performance in the "Friends of the College" series will be the Chicago Opera Ballet, scheduled for Jan. 15 and 16. The tickets purchased by ACC, which may be picked up at the Music Building, are good for the performance of the 16.

Offering a superb evening which combines with stunning effect all the elements of glamour and excitement for which ballet as an art is famed, the Chicago Opera Ballet has come to be recognized at home and abroad as one of the world's great companies. The company features internationally acclaimed stars, exciting young personalities as soloists, and a brilliant corps de ballet with eye filling costumes and decors to match. The combination has produced an elegant ballet evening which has delighted countless thousands throughout North America, in Europe, and in Great Britain.

Such success must be directly accredited to Ruth Page, whose perceptive showmanship, good taste, and perfectionism have elevated the Chicago Opera Ballet to its present eminence. Her skill in translating opera - story - into - ballet is unique in the dance field. The boldness and originality of her conceptions have afforded Ruth Page a special niche in ballet's Hall of Fame.

MUSIC CLUB OFFICERS — Shown above are the new officers of the ACC Music Club. They are, left to right, Neal O'Neal, faculty advisor; Linda Camden, vice-president; Janice LaCelle, secretary; Charles Burt, treasurer; Becky Lennon, president.

Rules, Regulations Issued By Committee On Display

The 1963-64 Homecoming Display Committee has established the following regulations to be followed by all organizations in constructing Homecoming displays:

1. All displays must be in good taste and decor. Any organization whose display fails to meet this criteria will be asked to remove their display by the Display Committee.

2. There is no general theme which displays must adhere to. However, it was the opinion of the committee that all displays should be associated with the basketball game as much as possible. Atlantic Christian will be playing the Western Carolina "Catamounts" whose colors are purple and gold.

3. All displays are to be outside and erected in the general vicinity of the housing area making the display.

4. No outside work may be started prior to Tuesday, Jan. 28 and must be completed by 9 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 1.

5. All displays must be taken down completely by Tuesday noon, Feb. 4.

6. Judging will be held on Saturday sometime between 9 a.m. and 12 o'clock noon.

7. A first-place award will be given to the fraternity, sorority, and dorm association with the best display. (There will be a total of 3 awards.) The winners will be announced at the basketball game half-time ceremonies.

8. Any organization planning to construct a Homecoming display must turn in the name of the organization, the title of the display, and the type of display to the Dean of Student's office by Wednesday, Jan. 22.

Members of the Homecoming Display Committee are: Robert E. Bennett, dean of students, chairman; Miss Jessie Daniels, assistant dean of women; Robert Bonner, vice president of the IFC; Marion Pulley, vice president of the Womens Dormitory Association; and Phil Williams, vice president of the Men's Dormitory Association.

Reunions Planned By Nine Classes

Nine class reunions will be an integral part of the 1964 homecoming activities. Each year at homecoming, reunions are held by every class at five year intervals. The largest, and usually the best attended, is the 25th Anniversary Reunion, being held this year by the class of '39. Other classes which will be holding reunions this year are '59, '54, '49, '44, '34, '29 and '24.

Heading the "Class of '39" Reunion Committee is Frances Gurganus McDustrell, a local junior high school teacher. Other members of the committee are Cyrus Lee, a Wilson attorney; Edith Farmer, Bailey High School teacher; Rachel Daniel Bass, Wilson County teacher and Sadie Dew Kemp, a retired school teacher.

Commenting on the forthcoming 25th Anniversary celebration, Mrs. McDustrell said: "Our class members are distributed all over the eastern part of the United States for the most part, and the rest are still living in North Carolina and Virginia. Since this will be our major reunion, our Reunion Committee sincerely hopes that all class members, both far and near, will make a special effort to return to Atlantic Christian College." Plans for the seven other reunions to be held on the same day are being carried out by the following persons: Miss Sadie Ethel Greene and James Milton Moye, class of '24; Mrs. F.A. Jefferson (Mable Amerson), Mrs. Roma Boykin (Dixie Boswell), and Monroe Fulghum, class of '29; Richard F. Barnes, John D. Wilson and Mrs. Frances Fulghum, class of '34; Mrs. Sallie Lucas Hurley, class of '44; Mrs. Gwendolyn Tomlinson Pridgen, Eugene H. Barnes, Mary Llewellyn Corrington and Dr. Mildred Hartsock, class of '49; Cecil Willis, Gilbert Ferrell, Robert G. Webb and Mrs. Maxine O'Connell, class of '54; Claude A. Anthony, Jane Franklin and Mrs. Peggy Mitchell Walston, Class of '59.

Parents Will Visit Campus In Feb.

Hundreds of parents of Atlantic Christian College students are expected to be on hand for the Third Annual Parents' Day to be held on the college campus on Feb. 2, 1964. Last year the event was attended by over 800 visitors.

Registration for the annual affair is scheduled to begin at 9 a.m. During the morning parents will have the opportunity to accompany their sons and daughters to churches of their choice in the city of Wilson.

A special luncheon will be held for students and their parents in the campus gymnasium. Open house will be held beginning at 2 p.m. at which time the guests will meet members of the college faculty and administrative staff and will have the opportunity to become better acquainted with the educational opportunities offered their children at Atlantic Christian.

Visiting parents will be honored at a reception held at the home of President and Mrs. Arthur D. Wenger in the afternoon.

AC Prepares For Annual Homecoming Ceremonies

Reunions, the First Annual Alumni College, a Homecoming Dance, Conference basketball, a concert, crowning of a Homecoming Queen, displays, and election of a new Alumni Association officers — these are the attractions now being planned for the 1964 Homecoming celebration to be held Saturday, Feb. 1.

Homecoming will officially begin with alumni registration in the classroom Building at 9:00 a.m. Following registration at 10:00 o'clock will be the First Annual Alumni College, which will feature 50 minute lectures by the chairmen of the 10 academic departments. After each lecture a question and answer period will be held. Interested students are invited to attend.

After polling the various campus organizations about the feasibility of having a homecoming parade, the Homecoming Steering Committee has decided to try something different. This year interested organizations will be asked to enter homecoming displays which will be judged Saturday morning. Trophies for the top three displays will be awarded during the half-time activities at the basketball game. Robert E. Bennett, Dean of Students, is chairman of the display committee, which has as its members Robert Bonner, Marian Pulley, Phil Williams, and Miss Jessie Daniel.

The Alumni Business Luncheon will be held in Bert Hardy Dining Hall at 12:30 p.m. Presiding over the luncheon will be Robert L. Dunn, Class 60, president of the Alumni Association, and past president of the Cooperative Association. The highlight of this event is the election of the 1964-65 Alumni Association officers.

Following the luncheon, the music department, under the direction of James V. Cobb, Jr., will present a combined band and choral concert. During the concert intermission, contestants for the homecoming Queen Contest will be presented. Crowning the 1964 Queen will be the new president of the Alumni Association.

At 4:00 p.m., a formal dedication of the Music Building will be held. Speaker for this ceremony is to be announced at a later date.

Scheduled to begin at 6:00 p.m. are fraternity and sorority dinners for returning alumni. Places where they are to be held will be announced in the next issue of The Collegiate. Also to be held from 5:30 to 8:00 are eight class reunions, the biggest of which will be the 25-year reunion of the class of '39.

Another highlight of homecoming will be a Carolinas Conference basketball game between the Bulldogs and the Western Carolina Catamounts in the Wilson Recreation Center. In the last rating of small college basketball teams, Western Carolina was rated No. 3 in the nation.

Winding up Homecoming for 1964 will be a dance in the Classroom Building for students and alumni. Preparations for the dance, which will begin immediately after the basketball game, are being handled by Mrs. Janet Boles, Miss Jessie Daniel, and Mrs. Edna Johnston. "The Manhattens" of Charlotte will provide music for the evening.

Clinics Are Slated On ACC Campus

During the coming year the Music Department of Atlantic Christian College will sponsor a series of three instrumental music clinics for band directors and students.

Clinicians for the series are considered to be some of the most able in their fields. Each is an authoritative performer and experienced teacher at both the high school and college level.

The series will begin with a Clarinet Clinic on Jan. 18 with Curtis Craver of Raleigh serving as clinician. He is widely known throughout the state as a popular and much respected teacher and soloist.

Second in the series will be the Tuba Clinic on Jan. 25. Clinician will be Louie Rivetti who is currently a graduate fellow at the College Conservatory of the University of Cincinnati where, in addition to his studies, he teaches tuba and directs the Barass Ensemble.

The final clinic of the series will be the French Horn Clinic on Feb. 8. The clinician will be Dr. Harris Mitchell from the Music Department of the University of Georgia.

All clinics will last from 9:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. There will be no charge. For further information contact: Neal O'Neal, Director of Instrumental Music, Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, N. C.

Exam Schedule

MONDAY, JANUARY 13

8:00 - 10:00 Freshman English Classes
10:15 - 12:15 2:00 TT Classes
1:00 - 3:00 8:00 MWF Classes
3:15 - 5:15 8:00 TT Classes

TUESDAY, JANUARY 14

8:00 - 10:00 General Botany Classes
10:15 - 12:15 10:00 MWF Classes
1:00 - 3:00 3:00 TT Classes
3:15 - 5:15 1:00 MWF Classes

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 15

8:00 - 10:00 9:00 TT Classes
10:15 - 12:15 3:00 MWF Classes
1:00 - 3:00 9:00 MWF Classes
3:15 - 5:15 2:00 MWF Classes

THURSDAY, JANUARY 16

8:00 - 10:00 Sophomore English Classes
10:15 - 12:15 1:00 TT Classes
1:00 - 3:00 12:00 MWF Classes
3:15 - 5:15 12:00 TT Classes

FRIDAY, JANUARY 17

8:00 - 10:00 General Zoology Classes
10:15 - 12:15 11:00 MWF Classes
1:00 - 3:00 11:00 TT Classes
3:15 - 5:15 TBA & 4:00 Classes

Saturday classes will have their examinations on January 18, 1964.

All evening classes will have their examinations at the regular class meeting time during examination week. Examinations for classes which do not fit into the above schedule will be arranged by the instructor. Students are reminded to pick up class cards for the second semester at the Business Office during the week of examinations.