"Peace Pilgrim" Visits ACC On 25,000 Mile Walkathon

On Wednesday, March 4, a woman known only by the name of "Peace Pilgrim" visited Wilson and Atlantic Christian College. Her purpose was to walk 25,000 miles for the cause of world peace, and up to the point of her visit in Wilson she had walked 23,500 miles. She walks only with the clothes she is wearing, carries no money, and stays over night only in the homes of people willing to provide her with a place to sleep. This was her third such walk across the United States, and she has also visited Canada and Mexico.

Her walks started in 1953, and when asked how she had started such a life she said, "In my early life money making was easy and meaningless. When I began to live to give instead of to get, my life became meaningful, and I knew my life work would be work for peace. There followed fifteen years of serving and speaking, before I found inner peace and began my peace pilgrimage."

She went on to say that the work she was doing was possible because she has inner peace, and is able to bring about control of mind over body.

While discussing current world situations she said she would like to see the creation of a Peace Department in the President's Cabinet, and the establishment of a world language by the United Nations. This language could be created by a group of language experts throughout the world. She also believes the U. N. forces could successfully disarm and unite East and West Germany, and that the United States should recognize Red China in the U. N. in order to bring them to the bargaining table.

Her pet project is "to commend every good thing that comes to your attention and to give it strength." Some of her favorite sayings are, "unnecessary positions are unnecessary burdens," "the world is like a mirror, if you smile at it, it will smile at you," and "the wish to survive will push us into an uneasy world peace."

Bill Black's Combo To Be At Greek Dinner-Dance

The Interfraternity Council of Atlantic Christian College will sponsor its annual Greek Week, March 16-21. Greek Week will honor the Greeks on campus, and many activities are planned.

The highlight of the week will be Friday night at the Ship 'n Shore when the Bill Black combo will entertain the Greeks and their dates. The combo is popular in the recording field and has made appearances all over the United States. Preceding the dance, the fraternities and sororities will hold a banquet, also to be held at the Ship 'n Shore. Dress will be semiformal.

However, the festivities for the week begin with a carnival to be held on campus. Every sorority and fraternity will sponsor a booth. The proceeds from the carnival will go to the IFC.

Wednesday night, there will be a Greek Sing in Howard Chapel. Each group enters two songs, one being its own sorority or fraternity song. Trophies will be awarded to the best groups. Thursday night there will be a stunt and talent night. Again each group will enter a stunt and a talent in the competition. Trophies will be presented for the best events.

The week will be ended by a concert on Saturday afternoon. Several groups will play. The featured attraction will be Ian and Sylvia, a folk-singing group from Canada. They have made many appearances over the United States and Canada. It may also be stated that their manager is the same one who manages Peter, Paul, and Mary! The following groups will be assisting them: the migrants, Mike Williams, Miss Guerry Mathews, the Huntsmen, and the Plainsmen.
