Foreign Jobs In Summer

Job opportunities in Europe this summer. . . Work this summer in the forests of Germany, on construction in Austria, on farms in Germany, Sweden and Denmark, on road construction in Norway.

Well there are these jobs available as well as jobs in Ireland, Switzerland, England, France, Italy, and Holland are open by the consent of the governments of these countries to American university students coming to Europe the next summer.

Every year, the program has been expanded to include many more students and jobs. Already, many students have made applications for next summer jobs. American - European Student Service (on a non-profitable basis) is offering these jobs to students for Germany, Scandinavia, England, Austria, Switzerland, France, Italy, and Spain. The jobs consist of forestry work, child care work (females only), farm work, hotel work (limited number available), construction work, and some other more qualified jobs requiring more specialized training.

The purpose of this program is to afford the student an opportunity to get into real living contact with the people and customs of Europe. In this way, a concrete effort can be made to learn something of the culture of Europe. In return for his or her work, the student will receive his or her room and board, plus a wage. However, students should keep in mind that they will be working on the European economy and wages will naturally

FLOWERS IN JANUARY?—Pretty Lynda Carr seems to be taking full advantage of the recent warm weather in adding a little beauty to her surroundings. ### Parking Spaces Pose Problems As Student Body Grows Larger

By ANN JOHNSON

As is evident to most ACC drivers, there exists the age old (modern age, that is) problem of finding a parking space.

According to administration records, as of Monday, Jan. 3, there were a total of 592 automobiles registered — 128 faculty and staff autos and 464 student autos. Dean Bennett said that there are some multiple registrations by students who may drive two or more different cars during the year. On the other hand, he said, there are some cars parked near campus which are not registered because the regulation states that cars which are to be parked on campus property only are to be registered. He concluded that these two exceptions offset each other so the total of 592 is probably fairly accurate. Using this figure, one out of three people at ACC has a car.

On campus there are 168 parking spaces available — 55 spaces designated for faculty and staff only, 83 spaces for students only, and 30 spaces for both. In other words, 43 per cent of the faculty, 24 per cent of the students, and 28 per cent of the total number of autos can be accommodated. According to Dean Bennett, without going more than a block from campus in any direction, there are 223 spaces on the street. Adding the 168 campus spaces, there are 391 parking spaces within a block of campus. This number represents accommodation for 66 per cent of the vehicles. Dean Bennett said that it must be kept in mind that all the vehicles are not here at one time. He said that parking space is much like classroom space and can be used more than once in the same day.

Dean Bennett stated that these figures only indicate a need for more on-campus parking, but the problem at this point has not reached critical proportions when street parking is considered. He said that there are plans to do away with the faculty - staff lot and part of the student lot to make room for the construction of the proposed cafeteria and student center. The two lots accommodate approximately 95 cars. Obviously, the parking problem would become critical if 95 cars were sent to the streets but, according to Dean Bennett, the college is aware of this. He said that Mr. Adams, business manager, has been working with the architect on a possible solution to the parking problem. Dean Bennett said that the administration realizes that this is one phase of our campus development that will have to take place along with the expansion of other needed facilities.

According to Dean Bennett, there will be no additional control of change in regulations concerning auto registration at this time. He said that some colleges do restrict the number of automobiles, but most studies indicate no significant difference academically. Although no study has been made at ACC, Dean Bennett seems to support this idea.

He has been heard as soloist with the Symphony of the valley under the baton of Ronald Ondrejka, and will appear next month in recital at Winona State College, Winona, Minn.

Included in Black's program at Atlantic Christian will be the Mozart Variations on "Ah Vous Dirais Je, Maman" (Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star), four Chopin Impromptus, two Schubert Impromptus, Rachmaninoff's Variation on a theme by Chopin, a sonata by Samuel Barber and Liszt's Mephisto Waltz.

The concert will be in Howard Chapel. The public is invited. There will be no admission charge.

Belk-Tyler Makes Gift

Atlantic Christian College was recently presented an unrestricted grant in the amount of $1,000 by the Belk - Tyler Foundation. Presenting a check for the grant was H. M. Jeffries Jr., foundation representative and manager of the local Belk-Tyler Store.

The gift makes a total of $3,000 presented to Atlantic Christian College by Belk-Tyler Foundation during the past two years.

Commenting on the grant, Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, president of the college, said, "We are very pleased that various foundations are participating in the growth and development of the college's plant and facilities. The Belk-Tyler Foundation's continuing participation is evidence of its substantial interest in higher education at Atlantic Christian College."

The recent gift by Belk - Tyler makes a total of more than $64,000 in foundation grants committed to Atlantic Christian College during the current year.

Bunn's Resignation Creates Total Gap In Leadership

Ann Bunn, day student senator, announced her resignation to the Executive Board in the form of a letter to David Webb, president, last Monday night. The letter read as follows:

"I'm sorry it has taken me so long to write this letter to you. As you know I am now practice teaching; and there is much more work in it than I ever expected. Therefore, I feel I must resign from my position as Day Student Senator. I realize I am being of no help whatsoever to the Day Students by being off campus and knowing practically nothing about any of the college events. Naomi and I felt that someone else could better serve the Day Student cause and need, as president and senator.

"Please express to the board members my position."

In other business, Larry Poore, men's dorm president, reported that the Chapel Committee had met and had discussed the prospect of having a campus referendum on required chapel.

John Gorham, student coordinator, presented the bill which ACC will sponsor at the SSL convention. The bill deals with education and was read to and discussed by the board.

Marshall Smith, senior senator, moved that elections of the day student officers be held on January 11, and that petitions should be received up through 12 p.m. on Friday, January 7. The motion passed.

The ACC "drinking rule" was brought up for discussion. No action was taken for want of further consideration into this matter.

Larry Poore moved that the president be authorized to appoint a committee which would be responsible for holding symposiums in order that students might have the opportunity to discuss various campus issues. The motion was amended to pass this authority on to the Campus Awareness Committee and passed.

The movies to be shown on campus as decided by the students were reduced to six by the voting of the Board. The movies appearing will be, "Bridge on the River Kwai," "Backstreet," "Suddenly Last Summer," "The Cardinal," "Hamlet," and "On the Waterfront."

Organizations were reminded that they must have their constitutions in to the SGA by February 1. Failure to do so will result in penalties to the organization.
